County's 3rd War Bond Fund Now Near One-Third of Quota

Fifth Day's Sales $310,195 Raising Total To $929,043; Plans Set for Tomorrow Night's Bond Show.

The fifth day's sales in the Third War Loan drive in Marion county totaled $310,195.50, a big pickup from the preceding two days, with the result that the total to date soared to $929,043.75, or nearly a third of the $2,829,000 quota.

Despite the encouraging report, drive leaders urged all workers to "keep 'em rolling" until the county is definitely beyond its goal. They declared that one of the finest testimonials Marion county could produce to convince its fighting men they are being backed up 100 per cent by the people at home would be to push the Third War Loan drive well over the county quota. Even though the campaign represents the biggest single financial drive in the county's history, the leaders declared such a showing is possible if every Marion county resident responds.

As the county's bond total grew today, sponsors of the benefit war bond show at the Palace theater tomorrow night reported the house is sold. Shortly after noon today the last seats were sold. Interest is running high in the war bond show, at which movie stars here for the filming of "Home in Indiana" will be on the stage.

In arranging the final details of the program this morning, George Planck, manager of the Palace, said plans call for opening the doors at 7:15 tomorrow night, starting the show at 8 o'clock with a news reel, two novelty short films and a community sing film. These will be followed by presentation of the movie stars on the stage about 8:30. The stars will be introduced and each will have a part in the program. Walter Brennan and Ward Bond and possibly others are expected to take part in the auction of autographed books, "The Phantom Filly," on which "Home in Indiana" is based, and in the auction of autographed photographs of the stars themselves. The stage show is expected to last about an hour with Mr. Planck as master of ceremonies. Lewis Wickersham will be auctioneer, and the articles sold will go to the persons bidding the most war bonds.

Recognition will be given the Marion Rotary club for its sale of tickets to the war bond show, and to Mrs. J. M. Strehlitz, who served as general chairman in charge of arrangements.

The stage program will be followed by the screen feature, "The Amazing Mrs. Holliday," starring Deanna Durbin.

Good News from Factory

Among the encouraging reports received by drive leaders today was the unusual record of one member of the committee of approximately 75 conducting a canvass of employes of the Marion Steam Shovel Co. Reports turned in to E. L. Cleveland, chairman of the company's part in the drive, showed that John Powell Jr., one of the workers turned in war bond applications totaling $2,000 the first day and added a note that most of the persons he had contacted had also agreed to in-

NAZIS' GRIP ON DNIEPER SLIPS

Russian Advance Threatens Vital Power Source at Dnieperopetrovsk.

By The Associated Press

LONDON, Sept 15—The great Red army summer offensive, spread-eagled over a 600-mile long front from the Sea of Azov northward to the forested terrain beyond the strategic rail junction of Bryansk, was rocking the entire German hold on the Dnieper river valley and threatening the vital power hub of Dnieperopetrovsk, Soviet dispatches reported today.

The Germans were said to be retreating along the entire front, abandoning town after town together with incalculable stores of war material before the relentless drive of the Soviet armies.

The Soviet army newspaper Red Star, reported today that a Russian night attack broke the German intermediate line defending Lozovaya in the central Ukraine, the dispatch said, bogging down roads and fields and slackening the speed of maneuvers, but the tanks and motorized infantry continued to slog forward in pursuit of the retreating enemy.

Moscow, however, deliberately ignored a German admission that the Nazis had evacuated Bryansk, although it was evident that Gen. M. M. Popov's motorized columns were in full control of the situation in that area.

A Soviet war bulletin reported Russian troops engaged in offensive action in and around the city after slicing four of its five trunk rail lines, and dispatches indicated the Red army spearheads were biting further north toward the Smolensk salient.

The Russians frequently have withheld announcements of the capture of important strongholds, allowing Berlin to broadcast accounts of "strategic" withdrawals before themselves proclaiming their victories.

MARION ON ROUTE OF TWA EXPANSION

Marion is one of 15 Ohio cities which the Transcontinental and Western Air, Inc., has included in its proposed expansion of air service, according to an Associated Press dispatch from New York today. Application for permission to expand its service has been filed with the civil aeronautics board in Washington, the dispatch states.

Ninety-five additional cities are included in the proposed program. Those in Ohio aside from Marion are Canton, Cleveland, Ironton, Lima, Mansfield, Massillon, Newark, Marietta, Portsmouth, Springfield, Steubenville, Middletown, Hamilton and Zanesville.

Approval of the application would bring TWA's aerial service to 123 cities instead of the present 28 and would place most towns of 5,000 or more population along its route east of Kansas City within 25 miles of an air line stop, the company said.

MOVIE TROUPE ARRIVES; TO BE HERE ONE WEEK

Cameras To Start Turning Tomorrow As Three-Day Race Meet Opens.

Headed by Academy award winner, Walter Brennan, Ward Bond and Lon McCallister, a Twentieth Century-Fox motion picture company consisting of 94 persons arrived in Marion today to begin filming climactic scenes for the $2,000,000 technicolor production, "Home in Indiana," based on George Agnew Chamberlain's novel "The Phantom Filly."

The troupe came here from Fremont, where it has been on location since Sept. 6 for filming of scenes supplementary to the Marion phase of the all-color production. A part of the company remained in Fremont today to complete filming of race track scenes leading up to the Marion phase. Director Henry Hathaway said this morning.

In cooperation with the Hollywood movie makers, Frank M. Foster, president of the Houghton Suley Co. and secretary of the Marion Trotting association, has arranged a three-day meeting, beginning tomorrow afternoon and continuing through Saturday afternoon, during which scenes for the final production will be made.

To Remain a Week

Following the conclusion of the racing program Thursday the movie company will remain in Marion for about a week before moving to the famous Walnut Hall Farms at Donerail, Ky., for further filming. The "on location" phase of the picture is scheduled to be completed late in November. Following the cast's return to Hollywood further scenes will be made and the picture probably will be released sometime in December.

Director Hathaway announced today that the picture will be known as "Home in Indiana," not "The Phantom Filly," as previously reported.

Shortly after arriving in Marion this morning key personnel involved in the production made a tour of the fairgrounds and arranged for "sprucing up" the grounds in preparation for its movie debut.

Cameras Start Thursday

The nationally-known director stated that filming would not begin until racetime tomorrow afternoon. The horses for tomorrow afternoon's first race, the 24 class pace, will go to the post about 1:50 and the race is scheduled for 2 o'clock.

It had been hoped that shooting could be started early tomorrow morning, Director Hathaway said, but because of necessary repairs which need to be made the starting was delayed and the production schedule was temporarily shuffled.

In arranging for the start of production, Director Hathaway together with a corps of assistants and technical advisors, have tried to establish a carnival air around the fairgrounds. Brilliant banners, pennants and bunting have been purchased to decorate the grandstand, the two stands accommodating the judges and timers and various other sections of the sprawling fairgrounds race plant.

Paint Roofs Red

Roofs on more than half of the barns at the north end and east side of the half-mile track are being painted red. The more than 60 electric light poles around the inside rail of the track also are being painted.

Sections of barns on the east side of the track will be repaired and put in first class shape for certain scenes of the production. Altogether a staff of more than 25 workmen this afternoon began preparations preliminary to the filming.

Tomorrow's production schedule calls for filming of race scenes. On Friday morning cameramen will shoot barn scenes in which Lon McCallister as "Sparkie" and

Marion Seaman in Battle Area Buys $1,000 Bond

Helping to swell Marion county's contribution to the Third War Loan campaign is the purchase of a $1,000 war bond by a 27-year-old Marion man on duty with Uncle Sam's Navy somewhere in the Pacific battle area. The purchaser is Walter Keck, first class machinist's mate, brother of Fred Keck of 373 Park boulevard, with whom he made his home before entering the Navy five and one-half years ago. The purchase was made yesterday afternoon through Carl Danner, of the Danner-Buick Co., where Fred Keck is employed.

Keck, who was at Pearl Harbor during its attack in December 1941 knows the value of the dollars and cents which go into War bonds when they are transferred into war materials to answer the axis, and thinks that every available dollar should be used for that purpose. He also has another good reason for wanting backing on the home front as he has a brother, Charles Keck of Leader street, now in training with the Marines at Memphis, Tenn. In his letter, accompanying the check for the war bond, Keck said everything was fine and that business seemed "as usual." His main thought was getting the money "working for Uncle Sam."

Keck, who is on a destroyer, receives his mail through a west coast postoffice. He is the son of Elmer Keck of Detroit, formerly of Marion, and was graduated from Harding High school. Following his graduation he was employed with the General Excavator Co. before joining the Navy. He has another brother, Wilbur Keck of 582 Avondale avenue.

1-MILL SCHOOL LEVY VOTE SET

Resolution To Submit Proposal in November Adopted by Board.

Marion voters will be asked to support a one-mill levy to carry on expenses of the city school system and to assure a full term for the school year beginning in September 1944, when they go to the polls on Nov. 2, this year. Decision to seek the approval of a one-mill levy was reached at an adjourned meeting of the board yesterday afternoon at the school administration building. The vote was unanimous.

The levy, which will run for two years, will amount to 10 cents for each $100 of valuation for and during the years of 1943 and 1944. A two-mill levy submitted by the board in November last year and again at the primary last month was defeated. "We are hoping voters of the city will see fit to support us in this measure," Harry J. Barnhart, president of the board said, following the vote to submit the one-mill levy. Approval of the levy would raise approximately $36,925 yearly for general operating expenses based on 100 per cent tax collections.

Records show that the major portion of the school expenditures is used for salaries—80 per cent of the present income goes for salaries—and curtailment of expenditures will have to be made in the purchase of supplies and in other operating costs during the present year to keep within the available funds. Curtailment started with the opening of school this year when no writing teacher and no physiotherapist were employed.

Prospects for Operation

With authorization of the one-mill levy in November, the board states, the city schools will be able to operate on the present basis, plus curtailments in operating costs. If it does not pass the only alternative is to close school for a period of several weeks during the latter part of the calendar year 1944. "The board feels that the people of Marion do not want to close the schools and neither do they want them operated on other than the present basis, but there positively is no other source of additional money in sight," Douglas Torrance, clerk of the board, stated.

When the two-mill levy was sought it was to provide an increase in income to maintain the city school program at its 1943 level and to provide funds for a proposed $15-a-month increase in salaries for school employes to help meet higher cost of living. The proposed increase in salaries would become effective Jan. 1,

DEATH TAKES MARION ARMY AIR STUDENT

Kenneth J. F. Sweney Dies in Texas.

Kenneth J. F. Sweney, 20, aviation student in the Army Air Forces, son of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth F. Sweney of 627 Pearl street, died in Brooks General hospital at Ft. Sam Houston, San Antonio, Tex., at 1 p. m. yesterday after an illness of five weeks.

He suffered from acute lymphatic leukemia, a rare disease in which a poison paralyzes the bloodmaking organs of the body. The cause of presence of the poison in the organs is unknown in medical circles and the disease is incurable at the present, a local physician said today.

Mrs. Sweney was with her son at the time of his death.

He had just received the classification of bombardier in the Air force at San Antonio when he became ill. The first symptom of the ailment was a sore throat and from that other symptoms developed. He was admitted to the hospital Aug. 3.

Although the family was aware he was in the hospital his reports were cheerful, he indicated he was not suffering, and first realized on the gravity of his condition was Saturday when the parents were informed he was seriously ill. Mrs. Sweney left by plane from Columbus Sunday and arrived in San Antonio early Monday. She is a guest there of Mrs. Elsie McNay and Mrs. Marion Koogler McNay, former Marion residents.

Born April 12, 1923 in Marion, Kenneth J. F. Sweney was a son of Kenneth F. Sweney and Marguerite E. Wottring Sweney, the father a native of Marion and the mother of Prospect. A graduate of Harding High school, he was an employe at Weber's market after graduation, then of the Marion Steam Shovel Co. before entering the service Jan. 29 this year. From the induction center at Ft. Hayes he was sent to Keesler Field, Biloxi, Miss., for a month, after which he was enrolled in Mississippi State college six months. From there he went to San Antonio. One of nine men out of a large group who received the bombardier classification, he had passed a physical examination only a few days before becoming ill.

A brother, First Lt. Busby W. Sweney, a bombardier in the Air force, is stationed in China, member of a unit credited with delivering one of the heaviest blows of the war against Japanese shipping at ports in southeastern China, he enlisted in the Air corps.

"Eyes To Weep With"

To give the devil his due, Mussolini, the once boastful, now beaten jackal, gave utterance to a vivid phrase the other day as our soldiers advanced toward the boot of Italy.

"If we lose, we will be left only with our eyes to weep with."

Mussolini should know. That's all he and his axis partners in crime have left for the conquered peoples of Europe.

That would be your fate, too, if you had not built up the power for today's victorious invasion. Yesterday's War Bonds are doing a job today in Europe. Today's War Bonds will help pay for the march into Rome, Berlin and Tokyo.

Invasion requires double and triple the supplies of preparation for attack. The Third War Loan is a home front campaign in which everyone must march with his or her dollars. That extra $100 War Bond which you should buy today as your minimum participation in the attack is your guarantee that Mussolini, not you, has been left only with eyes to weep with.

TOLEDO STRIKE STOPS CLASSES

All 65 Schools in City Affected by Walkout of Service Employes.

By The Associated Press

TOLEDO (O.), Sept. 15—Every building in Toledo public school system was closed today by most far-flung strike in the city's history.

A walkout of building service and maintenance workers on the third day of the new term shut the doors of 65 buildings, cut off more than 40,000 children from access to their classes and is keeping about 1,200 teachers idle. No disturbances were reported.

Periodically threatened whenever deadlocks on major wage questions developed between the Toledo board of education and three organized groups of non-educational employes, the strike began last night when the unions confirmed an earlier decision to walk out. The AFL unions concerned are the operating engineers, building and service employes and firemen and oilers.

The strike resulted from the asserted inability of the board of education to meet the unions' demands for a "cost-of-living" increase of $30 a month. Since June the board had declared it was without funds to grant increase.

Strikers said selective service boards and ration boards would be permitted to use the school buildings as usual, but the federal day nursery project which takes care of the children of working war mothers in 10 schools, was closed Sunday.

Income Tax Report Deadline Is Tonight

With the approach of tonight's deadline for a large percentage of income taxpayers to file estimates of their 1943 incomes, there was a waiting line this morning at the office of the deputy collector of internal revenue in the Citizens building on West Center street.

Harold D. Sherrer, in charge, said the office would be open until midnight, and that he expected today's volume of returns to be heavy.

Meanwhile, The Associated Press reported that Ohio's four internal revenue offices estimated about 815,000 Buckeye taxpayers would file estimates by the midnight deadline tonight, with 50 per cent of the declarations still to come.

Collector Thomas M. Carey of Cleveland reported his office jammed as perplexed citizens, unfamiliar with provisions of the new law requiring the returns, sought assistance in filling out forms. A little more than a third of the 300,000 anticipated returns were on file, he said.

A Columbus, 56 deputy collectors will be on hand until midnight to check in the 100,000 expected tax estimates for that district.

Persons required to file tax estimates are unmarried salary or wage earners with an annual income of more than $2,700, husbands and wives with a similar income above $2,500 and those who realize monies not subject to withholding taxes.

AIR AND NAVAL FORCES HELP TO HOLD POSITION

5th Army Gives Up Some Ground To Straighten Battle Lines.

By The Associated Press

ALLIED HEADQUARTERS IN NORTH AFRICA, Sept. 15 — Allied troops have beaten off fierce German counterattacks against the Salerno bridgehead in Italy but were forced last night to yield some ground gained earlier, in order to straighten their lines.

New support came to Lt. Gen. Mark W. Clark's forces — the strongest air attacks of the Mediterranean war and the thunder of naval guns offshore.

Today's allied communique disclosed that savage, close-quarter combat raged along the whole Fifth army front from Salerno to Agropoli 27 miles south, with both sides throwing heavy reinforcements of troops and armor into battle.

British Eighth army troops speeding up the west coast to support the landing drove through the village of Belvedere, 67 air miles from Agropoli, to close the gap between allied forces to some 80 miles of coastline by land.

Heavy, see-saw fighting swirled in the Salerno sector, and the northwest African air force hurled all planes at its command against the Germans, flying more than 2,000 sorties from dawn Tuesday to dawn today in the greatest air attack ever witnessed in this theater.

Not a single allied plane was lost.

The Nazis managed to bring up more troops to the Salerno sector despite the concentrated pounding of roads by allied aircraft, and elements of at least one more division — the German 29th motorized — were identified in action against the allies. At least three others, the Hermann Goering, and 15th and 16th armored divisions, already were in the battle.

Reinforcements Landed

Allied naval forces were landing reinforcements all along the Salerno-Agropoli front despite German interference, and the naval communique announced occupation of Capri island west of Salerno on Sunday.

The land communique reported that "in some places our troops have been forced to yield ground, but new positions are being consolidated." Both sides made "determined counterattacks," it added.

The German attacks were strongly supported by tanks that were driven back repeatedly by blistering American and British fire. One U. S. combat team alone destroyed 13 tanks.

The yielding of ground at nightfall straightened allied lines and permitted consolidation of positions against expected night assaults by the enemy, it was announced.

One officer declared that the end of the day showed the situation was "a little more in our favor, especially with the arrival of fresh reinforcements."

The Eighth army's advance to Belvedere represented a 25-mile push beyond the Cosenza line, which had been announced yesterday as its position.

In the Taranto district on the "heel," British forces liberated 300 allied prisoners, including two Greek generals. They came in contact with German forces at Gioia about 20 miles northwest of Taranto. This was believed to have been a rear guard of the German first parachute division encountered earlier just north of Taranto.

Naval guns blasted heavily at German positions on the mainland in the Salerno area.

Cruiser Fires 355 Rounds

One American cruiser alone fired 355 rounds in a single day at enemy tanks and machine-gun nests.

(German broadcasts, which yesterday had reported the allies were evacuating their bridgehead, admitted today that the invaders were "offering resistance near the coast under cover of naval guns," and that "the allies have got their teeth into Salerno and even the most experienced soldiers find it difficult to push them back into the sea.")

Small pieces of ground changed hands repeatedly in the day's fierce conflict. The Germans made their heaviest and most determined attempt to drive the Fifth Army into the sea by sharp thrusts from the villages of Excevilla and Armoniana, situated on high ground overlooking the entire southern portion of the allied foothold in the Sele river valley.

One officer described the fighting there as "exceedingly bitter." The allied troops withdrew there slightly, leaving the enemy holding the two villages, but with every prospect that equally violent

13 TAKE TEST FOR AVIATION CADETS

Marion Area Group's Papers Sent to Lockbourne Base.

A four-hour mental examination was given by Lt. Helen N. Alkire of the Army recruiting station here and Lt. W. R. Reichenstein, executive officer of the Civil Air Patrol, Monday night at Harding High school to 13 Marion county youths interested in becoming either pilots, bombardiers or navigators in the Army Air Forces.

The written tests were forwarded to the Flying Fortress base at Lockbourne, O., where the papers will be checked. Authorities there will notify the Marion applicants as to whether they meet Army requirements. Those who pass the written test will be advised to report to Lockbourne for physical examination.

Monday night's tests were the first conducted in Marion. Heretofore the tests were given only at Army posts or by Army air corps officers who visited here frequently.

Lt. Reichenstein said additional tests will be conducted in the future. Rather than scheduling weekly examinations, Lt. Reichenstein and Lt. Alkire of the WAC will schedule tests only when a sufficient number of applicants have been assembled. In order to be able to take the exam, youths must be between the ages of 17 and 26, must present their birth certificate along with three letters of recommendation from reputable citizens.

Hardin County Farmer Is Injured by Tractor

KENTON, O., Sept. 14 — Robert Krouskop, 57, farmer of near West Mansfield, was recovering today in Antonio hospital after a narrow escape from death when he was pinned for a half hour between a tractor and the barn at his home. His wife heard his screams for help then had to go to the home of a neighbor to obtain aid in moving the tractor. He was severly bruised and cut but no bones were broken and it was believed that he escaped internal injury.

Edison Man Receives Sohio Pipe Line Award

Floyd Alexander of Edison, an employe in the eastern division of the Sohio Pipe Line, subsidiary of the Standard Oil Co. of Ohio, is wearing a new decoration in his coat lapel. It is a 35 year service pin given him by the company.

He started with Tidewater Pipe Co. in September, 1908, and spent his first year helping build Stoy, Brooklyn and Hagerstown, Ind., stations. He subsequently held the position of engineer in the Brooklyn, Ashland and Clinton, O. stations. Part of of his time was also spent in patrolling the line from Marion to the Warren station, and as gauger in the Wooster Field.

Number of Men On Farms Drops, Ayers Reports

By The Associated Press

CLEVELAND, Sept. 15 — "The number of men in non-agricultural employment 'has been decreasing more rapidly than the number of women employes has been increasing,'" Brig. Gen. Leonard P. Ayres declared today.

As a result of these and other problems, said the retired army officer in the Cleveland Trust Co.'s monthly business bulletin, "industry appears to have reached the saturation point of its productive capacity."

General Ayres said "in the last half of 1942 the numbers of women workers increased by 2.2 millions, while the men workers decreased by one million. The net result was an increase of 1.2 millions. In 1943 the opportunities for employment have proved to be much less effectively attractive to the women. In the first six months their numbers increased by only 400,000, while the men decreased by 1.9 millions."

Noting "manpower shortages in most munitions-producing capacities" and that "railroads are carrying about all the traffic they can handle," the Cleveland statistician, who has been serving as a special consultant to the war manpower commission in Washington, continued:

"Meanwhile, many of our munitions programs call for greatly increased outputs between now and the end of the year, and for continued production at those high levels next year. Moreover, the armed forces are asking for two million more men in the next year, and less than half of them will be supplied by those reaching the age of 18.

"All this means that something will have to give way somewhere. It is clear now that we cannot find all the additional men that the armed services are asking for, plus the millions of additional industrial workers needed for our munitions programs, without putting into effect sweeping national service legislation applicable to both men and women."

GRAND TWP. SCHOOL REUNION GROUP MEETS

Gathering Held at Sally Ann Camp West of Marion.

The Grand Township school reunion was held Sunday at the Sally Ann camp west of Marion, with a large attendance. Former pupils and patrons from Kalamazoo, Mich., Toledo, Fremont, Upper Sandusky, Harpster, Marion, Forest, Morral LaRue and Meeker were present.

Following a basket dinner there was an informal program during which a number of persons told of their school experiences and several contributed readings. Officers elected are: Charles Ferguson of Morral, president; Lewis Anderson of Morral, vice president; Mrs. Mildred Anderson, of LaRue, secretary; Mrs. Mollie Wilson of Marion, assistant secretary; Mrs. Iva Little of Meeker, treasurer. The 1944 reunion will be held the last Sunday in August at the same time.

WOMEN OF MARION

This call is urgent!

Over the oceans loaded troopships are carrying new thousands of soldiers to join our attacking armies at the front.

And every soldier who goes out to the fighting fronts must be replaced in an Army job behind the lines.

Women are needed in the WAC to take over these vital jobs. Hundreds of thousands of women are needed. You are needed—and right away.

In the WAC you'll do vital work. You'll share in one of the biggest experiences of your generation—and feel a deep sense of satisfaction in helping your country in its urgent need.

Are you an American citizen, a woman over 20 and under 50 years of age? Are you single, or if you're married, are you without dependents, without children under 14? Then you are needed in the WAC immediately. (If you are ineligible for the WAC because of age or family responsibilities, take over the job of an eligible woman and free her to join the WAC.)

Don't wait—every minute this war lasts costs the lives of American soldiers.

CLUB HEARS EXPLANATION OF NEW MOTORIST RULES

Talk on Amended Law Given at Rotary Meeting.

An explanation of the amended financial responsibility law relating to motorist, which becomes effective in Ohio Sept. 20, was given at the weekly meeting of the Marion Rotary club Tuesday at Hotel Harding by Howard F. Guthery, Marion attorney who is a member of the club.

The law as amended provides for suspension of driving rights over periods ranging from three to five years as a penalty for unpaid judgements resulting from accidents and for criminal offenses.

Pamphlets giving details of the law, prepared by the division of traffic and safety of the Ohio department of highways, were distributed at the meeting. The purpose of the law, as stated in the pamphlets, is "To make the streets and highways of Ohio safer for those who drive and those who walk by protecting the public against financially irresponsible drivers."

Announcement was made that G. Rex Kilbourn, assistant works manager of the Marion Steam Shovel Co., has been enrolled as a new Rotary club member.

A report of the sale of tickets for the Third War Loan drive benefit show at the Palace theater Thursday night was given by the general chairman, Edwin C. Dee.

Guests at the meeting were Ed Lamkin of Lakewood, O. and Guy Whitney of Dayton, O.

In one year, 8,500,000 theater tickets are sold in New York City.

What A Customer Should Expect--

When visiting a furniture store for the purpose of making a purchase, we believe a customer should expect—

—First of all, merchandise that is RELIABLE! There is so much substitution in furniture construction these days that it is quite as necessary to select the right store as it is to select the furniture.

—Second, inasmuch as it is difficult for the average person to understand furniture values, a customer should expect the right PRICE.

—Third, if you buy on the extended-payment plan you should not be penalized for so doing—either by being offered inferior quality or asked an exhorbitant price. You should expect credit as a Service pure and simple.

—Fourth, you should expect, and demand, decent and courteous treatment, appreciation of your patronage, and the right kind of store service.

If you would like to trade at a store that gives you all that you are entitled to expect, try Schaffner's. We will make good.

ROSENMAN RETURNS AS PRESIDENT'S AID

By The Associated Press

WASHINGTON, Sept. 15 — President Roosevelt once more has a "right arm" in the person of Justice Samuel I. Rosenman of the New York state supreme court.

Back in 1928, when he was governor of New York and Rosenman was his personal counsel, Mr. Roosevelt appointed "Sammy the Rose," as he is known around the White House, to the state supreme court, and in doing so he said:

"This act of mine today is one of the most unselfish things of my life, because I am cutting off my right arm."

Now, after 15 years, the chunky, genial jurist is coming back into Chief Executive's official family on a full-time basis, picking up exactly where he left off, as a personal counsel. He will leave the bench Oct. 1.

For years Rosenman has been one of the Chief Executive's confidential part-time aids dividing his time between Washington and New York. He has operated pretty much behind the scenes and wants to continue doing so.

As in the past, he will take on legal and quasi-legal tasks at the White House, helping out on administrative problems, drafting executive orders and rounding up material for presidential addresses.

Rosenman is giving up a $25,000-a-year position for one that will pay $10,000 or $12,000, but he figures that others are sacrificing much more in the war. Having served as an army officer in the last war, he had a hankering to get back in harness somewhere.

Civilian Defense Awards Await Ohio Volunteers

By The Associated Press

COLUMBUS, O., Sept. 15 — State Defense Director Ralph H. Stone announced today civilian service bars would be awarded during the next several weeks to thousands of Ohioans who have given at least 500 hours of unpaid service to the war effort.

Stone said county, township and local defense councils in all sections of the state with certified names of persons eligible for recognition would have their orders filled shortly.

War work for which credit is given in counting hours of service includes all activities approved by the office of civilian defense.

Alleged Spy for Nazis Held by FBI in East

By The Associated Press

WASHINGTON, Sept. 15—Director J. Edgar Hoover of the federal bureau of investigation announced today the arrest in Newark, N. J., of John Da Silva Purvis, 43, on charges that he acted as a spy for Germany.

Hoover said Purvis transmitted information to his "principals" in Europe, and on two occasions received cash payments for his services.

Purvis, a Portuguese citizen, allegedly began his espionage activities early in 1942 when he was contacted by a crew member of a neutral vessel who had been recruited by the German intelligence service.

MY BEST FRIEND'S HELPING HITLER!

It shocked me to find out!
He's always been ★ a right guy.
Fought in the last war—raised two kids.
Has a nice home . . . owns a good car,
Makes good money, 'specially now.

Today ★ he told me he was saving every cent he could get his hands on.

"In war bonds?" I asked.
He said, "I've got some bonds,
but not too much ★ I'm saving cash."

"Why?" I asked. "Why not bonds?
Why cash?"

"Oh, seems good to have the cash," he said ★ "I have some bonds.
May need the money. We're buying things from time to time we've always wanted."

"Good Lord, Bill," I said,
"Don't you know you're helping Hitler?"

He huffed right up. "I certainly am not!"

"Only a Hitler helper lets dollars loaf," I said. "You've got some ★ bonds.
Thousands of fighting men have fought some battles, too. But they don't quit.
They're fighting for the duration.
Your loans are needed the same way.
★ Buying bonds is a continuous job."

I walked away, plain mad. I don't know whether Bill woke up or not. But if he doesn't stake his saved-up cash on bonds
today ★ he's helping Hitler all right.
Idle dollars are blood money,
loafing while soldiers fight and die.
I've got mine in bonds and more go in ★ each time. I get a few together.
I'd be willing for any fighting man to know my record in this war!"

AND YOU?

. . . have you bought so many bonds it makes you feel clean and square with the men over there? When you lie alone in the dark at night and whisper a prayer for boys somewhere across the world, or getting ready to go, do you feel contented deep down inside yourself? It isn't fair to ask God to take over unless you're doing all you can . . . backing the attack with all you can lend. Squeeze out cash for another bond or two, won't you? Today!

"NO MORE 'DOSING' FOR ME!"
Says happy ALL-BRAN eater!
If you've been "dosing" without getting the lasting relief you wanted, this letter may offer you real encouragement:
"Permit me to compliment you on your wonderful product, KELLOGG'S ALL-BRAN! It certainly lived up to its promises with me! I'd been taking manufactured laxatives for a long time! But, no more dosing for me, thanks to KELLOGG'S ALL-BRAN! I've adopted it as my standby!" Mr. Alexander Klein, 630 West 170th Street, N. Y. C.
Yes, KELLOGG'S ALL-BRAN really "gets at" one big cause of constipation — lack of sufficient "cellulosic" elements in the diet— because ALL-BRAN is one of Nature's most effective sources of these elements! They work by helping the friendly colonic flora fluff up and lighten the colonic wastes for easy elimination. Not a harsh purgative! Doesn't "sweep you out"! ALL-BRAN is simply a gentle-acting, "regulating" food!
If this is your trouble eat KELLOGG'S ALL-BRAN regularly. Drink plenty of water. See if you don't find you can give up "dosing" for good! Insist on genuine ALL-BRAN, made only by Kellogg's in Battle Creek.

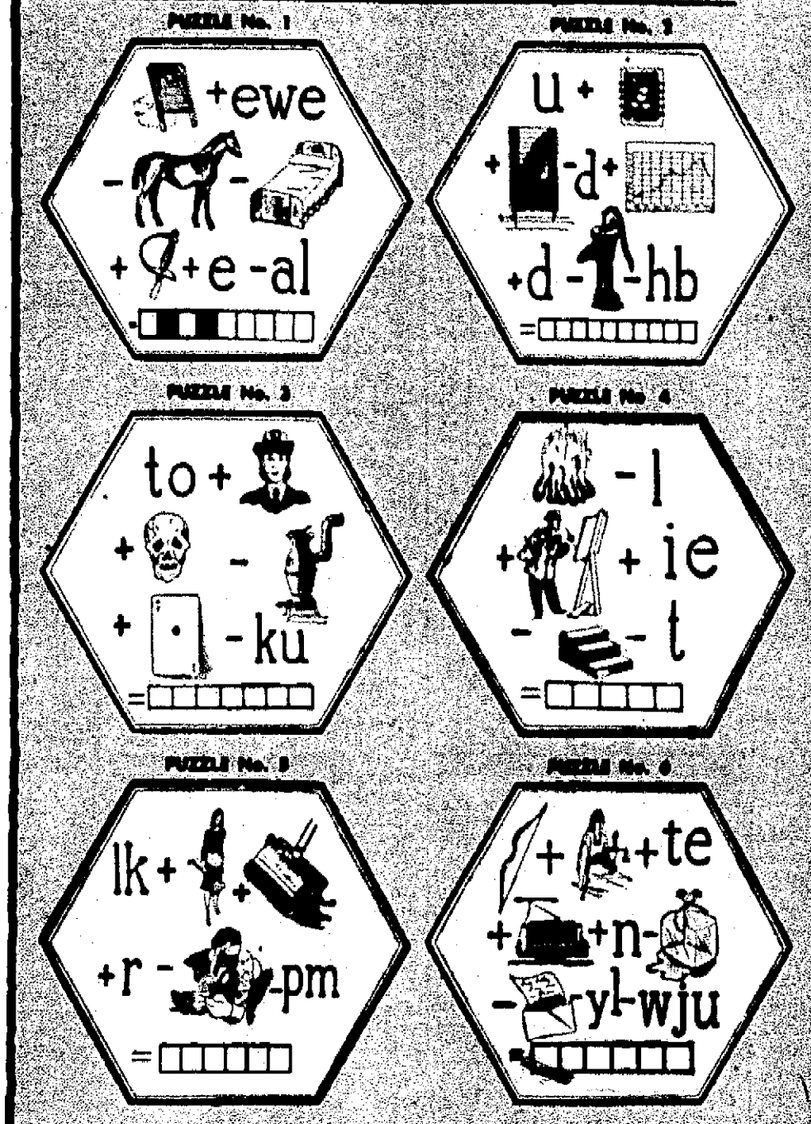
WIN $10,000 1st PRIZE
Read MAGAZINE'S PUZZLE CONTEST
READ Magazine will pay five hundred cash prizes totaling $25,000.00 in its new, delightful Puzzle Contest, Series No. 1 (Puzzles 1-6), and full official rules of the contest, are printed below — enabling you to enter the contest at once and start on your way toward winning $10,000.00, $5,000.00, $2,000.00, $1,000.00 or any other of 500 cash awards.
Thrilling as it is to win $10,000.00, $5,000.00, $2,000.00, $1,000.00 or any of the attractive prizes offered, we nevertheless believe there is another great pleasure in store for those who enter this contest. We refer to the added reading enjoyment that will come to those who become acquainted with READ.
Each month's issue of READ contains from thirty to forty articles of outstanding merit. These thirty or forty articles win their place in each month's issue of READ because the editors choose them as the finest, most interesting, most informative or most enjoyable that can be obtained.
To warrant inclusion in READ, an article must be interesting, clearly written, fateful and thoroughly understandable upon the first reading. Sexy subjects are taboo in READ. When you read READ, you read for pleasure, regardless of whether you are reading about science or a radio crooner, political economy or football, medical marvels or night clubs.
Factfully, sincerely, brightly, READ brings you each month what its editors consider the pick of the most interesting and enjoyable reading matter they can obtain.
Every contestant who competes in this contest in accordance with the rules, will receive a subscription to READ magazine to the full extent of the contestant's participation in the contest.
It is our hope that no matter how large a prize you win, you will consider your acquaintance with your new friend READ as an equally important winning in the contest.

Can You Solve Our Puzzles?

MAIL YOUR SOLUTIONS BY MIDNIGHT, THURSDAY, SEPTEMBER 16th

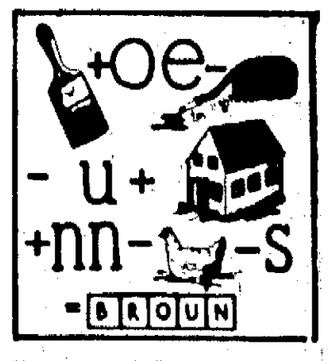
1st Week's Series - - - Puzzles 1 to 6



HOW TO SOLVE THE PUZZLES:

Be sure to read this explanation carefully before you try to solve the 6 puzzles printed at the left.

(SAMPLE PUZZLE)



Note the Sample Puzzle above. It was purposely made easy to show you how to solve the puzzles. Notice that there are several objects illustrated and also that there are several plus and minus signs, which means that you add or subtract. Let's solve the puzzle together. The first object is a BRUSH. Therefore, write down the letters B-R-U-S-H. Next you are told to add the letters OE, and by so doing you have B-R-U-S-H-O-E. Then you see a minus sign followed by a HOSE, which means that you deduct the letters H-O-S-E. That leaves you B-R-U, from which you are then told to deduct U, leaving you B-R. Next you are told to add HOUSE and the letters NN, giving you B-R-H-O-U-S-E-N-N. From that deduct HEN and the letter S, and you have B-R-O-U-N, the last name of the late famous columnist, Heywood BROUN.

THE PRIZES

10th Prize	$100
11th to 25th Prizes each $25	$375
Next 475 Prizes, each $10	$4,750
Total	$25,000

THE RULES—Please Read Carefully

1. READ Magazine's Puzzle Contest is open to everybody, with the exception of employees and relatives of employees of the organizations specified in Rule No. 9.

2. A group of 120 puzzles will be offered for solution. The solutions to these puzzles will be well-known names, among which may be names of persons or places, books, movies, plays, or songs — in fact, any names whatever.

3. A First Prize of $10,000.00 in cash or in War Bonds and 499 other prizes totaling $25,000.00 will be paid to the 500 persons who by their submissions achieve the highest scores in the contest in accordance with these official rules.

4. The puzzles of this contest are divided into Series of six puzzles each. Puzzles 1-6 comprise Series Number One; Puzzles 7-12 comprise Series Number Two; etc., etc., the Group consisting of twenty series. The first Series of six puzzles bears the submission date of Thursday, September 16, 1943. Each week, for eleven weeks, there will be one or more Series to solve as provided in these Rules. Contestants should solve the puzzles and should submit solutions to same in accordance with the submission dates printed on each Series. In submitting the solutions for any current Series, a contestant is privileged to submit solutions for preceding Series. Thus a contestant entering the contest during the time for submitting the Second Series should submit both the 1st as well as the 2nd Series, and so on. All Series must be qualified in accordance with Rule No. 7.

5. Contestants are to mail their solutions EACH WEEK. Once you enter the contest, the additional puzzles, as issued, will be mailed to you. Copies of any publication containing any of the puzzles can be examined free at the Public Library, and tearings of the Entry Form will be equally as acceptable as Entry Forms clipped from a newspaper or circular. Solutions should be addressed and mailed to: Contest Editor, READ, 1780 Broadway, New York 19, N. Y. Solutions should be mailed in accordance with the provisions of Rule No. 4.

6. Neatness will not count. Do not decorate your answers. Just submit your solutions in accordance with the rules. In case of ties, if two or more persons tie in submitting the correct solutions, then the first two or more prizes will be reserved for those contestants and will be awarded in the order of accuracy of the submissions of those contestants to a tie, and if necessary a second, tie-breaking Group of puzzles, divided in Series exactly like the first Group. In case a second tie-breaking Group of puzzles is necessary, contestants eligible to solve same will be required to accompany their solutions to this second tie-breaking Group of puzzles with a letter of not more than 200 words on the subject: "What I Like Best About READ." All tie-breaking Series must be qualified in accordance with the provisions of Rule No. 7. Only in case ties exist after tie-breaking puzzles have been checked will the letters be considered, and in that event they will be judged on the basis of originality in description and general interest. In case of final ties, duplicate prizes will be awarded. Upon entering the contest, the entrant is asked to realize that the sponsors anticipate that a large number of persons may enter the contest and that a large number may solve one or two or all three of the Groups of puzzles, and that the sponsors will not make known the number of persons competing in any phase of the contest, irrespective of how large or how small that number may be.

7. To qualify for a prize, the contestant is required to accompany each Series of six solutions with 15 cents in coin. Each contestant who submits a complete Group of solutions for this contest in accordance with the rules will get a year's subscription to READ Magazine. Any contestant who becomes eligible to submit and who does submit a group of qualified tie-breaking solutions, will get an additional year's subscription to READ Magazine. Those who for any reason drop out of the contest will nevertheless receive READ to the extent of their total remittances at READ's regular mail subscription rates.

8. This is a contest of skill. Upon entering the contest, the contestant agrees that prior to being awarded a prize he or she will sign and execute under oath an affidavit attesting that he or she has not bought nor exchanged answers in this contest, nor used answers bought, exchanged or supplied. The contestant further agrees that the decision of the Contest Editor, in all matters affecting the conduct of the contest, the acceptance of submissions, and the time limits established for the acceptance of submissions under unusual circumstances arising through no fault of the contestant, the making of awards, and the measures invoked to insure individual effort is fairness to all contestants, shall be final and conclusive.

9. Submissions that are unsigned or illegible will not be considered, nor will READ be responsible for submissions or communications unduly delayed, or not received, or lost in the mails either from READ to the contestant or from the contestant to READ. Barred from winning any prize in this contest are all employees and relatives of employees of READ Magazine, or its affiliates, also the American News Company, and the Reuben H. Donnelley Corporation.

10. All solutions should be addressed to Contest Editor, READ, 1780 Broadway, New York 19, N. Y.

YOU SEND IN YOUR ANSWERS EACH WEEK IN THIS CONTEST

In this contest you send in your answers EACH WEEK. Each six puzzles are considered a SERIES. Puzzles 1-6 comprise Series Number One; Puzzles 7-12 comprise Series Number Two; etc., etc. Thus you solve and submit one or more series of six puzzles EACH WEEK in accordance with the mailing dates specified for sending in the various Series.

Your solutions to Puzzles 1-6 (Series No. 1) should be mailed on the ENTRY FORM at the lower right before Midnight, Thursday, September 16th.

As soon as your Entry is received, we will immediately arrange to MAIL you the succeeding Series of puzzles, as issued. (Series No. 2 will be published on Friday in this newspaper for your convenience. Additional puzzles of the contest will be sent you by mail, as previously mentioned).

ENCLOSE 15 CENTS IN COIN WITH EACH SERIES OF ANSWERS

When sending in each Series of six answers, enclose 15 cents in coin. By submitting solutions to the puzzles, thus qualified, you become entitled to receive READ Magazine for such period as is covered by the total of your remittances and in accordance with READ's regular published rates. Thus you will receive READ Magazine in accordance with Rule No. 7, irrespective of any cash prize won.

WHY THIS CONTEST IS CONDUCTED

Each month there remains on the newsstands a valuable number of unsold copies. What with war-time restrictions on paper, it is READ's purpose, by means of this contest, to direct these unused copies to good use by increasing our number of mail subscribers, and at the same time reducing the number of unread and unsold copies left at the newsstands. At the same time YOU are afforded the opportunity to win $10,000, $5,000, $2,000, $1,000 or any other of the 500 prizes to be awarded.

Mail your answers on the ENTRY FORM below by Midnight Thursday Sept. 16th ▼

Your Money and Your Decision

THE national income this year is going to be 150 billion dollars. Part of it will pass through your hands. Some of it can't be spent profitably because of wartime shortages. The government wants to borrow it, instead.

Your government wants you to set aside as much as you can for the Third War loan as a special investment in victory and stability for the nation and in security for yourself.

It's your buying power that the government wants you to share, not the other fellow's. And it's your decision. No one else can make it for you.

You can decide whether, out of all the things you would like to buy, it is more important to spend your money for security, or on something you just happen to want at the moment.

No one argues that every man, woman and child in the United States can share and share alike in the purchase of War Bonds. However, if every man, woman and child with buying power will give an honest answer to the question—which comes first, security or something else?—the job will be done.

The money is here. Too much of it is being used to buy things that are scarce. Too much of it is being used for a good time while American fighting men fight and die on foreign battlefields.

The Third War Loan campaign is reminding you to review your own case. How much of your buying power could you spend on Bonds if you spent all you could? What else could be more important?

Your honest answers will put the Third War Loan over the top. The money is there, if it's put in the right place. Put yours in the right place today!

Italy's Quisling

WHATEVER pride Mussolini salvaged from his collapse is now being dragged through the mire of German political manipulation. It is a fitting end for the fat little despot who sold out his country's security to the ambitions of Adolf Hitler.

He has been kidnaped by his German masters and will be propped up as a front man for a puppet Italian government controlled by Berlin. While the claim to legitimacy of the Badoglio regime is shaky, any claim in behalf of Mussolini is absurd. He will be used by the Germans for what he is worth, which isn't much, and before long he will be carted away some morning with the debris of Hitlerism.

At least his role relative to the Nazis plot now is plain. He was the Nazi agent in Italy—Hitler's man. Italians sensed it long before his "rescue" from the hands of Italians and his transfer inside German lines revealed his real status. Mussolini was the principal Italian Quisling.

Japan Knows It Too

THE accepted version of the war with Japan is that nothing conclusive can happen until the combined resources of the United States and Great Britain are brought to bear after victory in Europe. The continued success of the forces under Gen. MacArthur, reaching a climax in the rout of the Japanese from Salamaua airdrome, key outpost in the defenses that must be overcome before a full-scale Allied attack can be launched, raises a question.

Will Japan's defeat await a full-scale attack?

Japan, like Germany, may prefer to make its last stand on foreign soil. The Japanese may decide that the best defense for their vulnerable islands is to quit defending their empire at the critical moment when continuation of the fighting might endanger the homeland.

In the battle of the outposts, the Allies have learned how to beat the Japanese at their own game. They know they can beat the Japanese on land, on the sea and in the air. Japan knows it, too. No one knows better than the Japanese war lords what it would mean to come to a showdown with the combined naval, aerial and land army strength of the United States, Great Britain and China.

Like most assumptions about the war, the assumption that Japan will have to be knocked out of the war by invasion of its island group is wide open to challenge.

So They Say—

Now that European politics have been supplanted by world politics, all island nations, including our own, must see to it that no nation spreads out its power to dominate the great world land areas.—President Dixon Ryan Fox of Union college.

They (Axis nations) still seek to divide and conquer allies who refuse to be divided just as cheerfully as they refuse to be conquered.—President Roosevelt.

The bitter lessons of the last quarter-century have proved that we have gone beyond the point where we can be indifferent to what happens beyond our own borders in carrying out our economic policy.—Navy Secretary Knox.

Fifteen years ago all the business men thought he had to know was Main street. Now he finds that acquaintance with Pennsylvania avenue, both ends, is indispensable.—Eric A. Johnston, president U. S. Chamber of Commerce.

News Behind the News

Need Seen for New Liberalism, With Nation's Press Leading the Way.

By PAUL MALLON

SYRACUSE, N. Y., Sept. 15—Here are some excerpt-thoughts from a talk I made yesterday to the New York State Newspaper Publishers' convention.

We are faced with world revolution as well as a World war. It will not be over when the war is over. We must plan our way. It is not a new revolution, not alone a political revolution or a revolution of ethics and culture. It started unnoticed by most in the revolutionary philosophies of Nietzsche and Freud, as well as Marx.

While Marx, the glorified prophet of the anti-democratic societies which have sprung into being in ever-widening scope since the last war, Nietzsche and Freud are the non-political revolutionizers whose voodoo enlightenment lured great masses of people away from their ethics and social ways and plunged them into this dazzling materialistic era in which we are now flinging our way toward yet undiscovered solutions.

The Soviets first brought the revolutionary theories into practice in a way which aims at every foundation of our historic democratic way of life—not only toward the abolition of capitalism, but the uprooting of our conceptions of moral justice which were founded on the Ten Commandments and Christian teachings.

I say this now without criticism, but as the statement of fact, for we must discard both criticism and prejudice if we are to see where we are now, or where we are going. Today, weighed truth is the scarcest article yet unrationed—or has it been rationed by censorship?

Inspired by Communism

The Communist experiment has now drifted into Socialism in Russia, but on the way, it inspired such counteracting, imitating systems of single-headed materialism as Fascism in Italy and Nazism in Germany.

Fascism or Nazism will be stamped out or chased underground as a hunted minority. But Russia is apt to come out of this war the dominant nation of Europe and Asia, and, in my opinion, in the following years, she is apt to become the greatest nation on earth.

Russia would be the last nation on earth to be swayed in her policies by emotionalism, so we must look at these things as coldly and as straight as she does. And we must get our people to look at them the same way.

This is the greatest revolution in the history of the world and its philosophies have encroached upon this hemisphere into your mind and mine. We have borrowed greatly from the totalitarianism this revolution preaches as its first commandment.

We have inched our democratic way closer and closer toward centralized federal government controls in various ways, even toward Socialism a little, and certainly we—by our new laws and federal actions—are far down the road toward establishing that the state is no longer the creature of man, but the man is the creature of the state.

To meet this revolution, the government seems to have primarily in mind some kind of a new social security and labor union democracy for post-war.

Remedies

The cure for unemployment is employment—not insurance. The cure for old age need is a good wage and a stable country in which savings are protected—not a tax collection scheme which drains money out of pockets in a volatile economy where inflation and rising or falling prices make social security insecure.

The fundamentals of security are not in government tax reservoirs, but in economic stability which protects employment, wages, prices, leisure, private insurance.

This is a middle class country, unlike Europe and Asia where there are only two classes, the very rich and the masses of very poor. In this nation, our superior democratic way of life has lifted the average standard of living so that our average middle class person has an automobile, a radio, electric comforts, a home, etc., beyond the hopes of the average European or Asiat.

This, I think, is the fundamental thing wrong in Washington. They have forgotten or abused the great middle class.

There are only two organizations of people getting rich out of this war—the labor unions and the churches. This is because neither is subject to taxation. No other wealth possibly can spring up under the 90 per cent excess profits tax.

I am not afraid of what this wealth will do to the churches, but what it will do to the force and power of the labor union leader is a problem to warrant the attention of all, including the union man.

Need for Liberalism

There must be a new birth of liberalism, founded on justice in government for free average (middle class) man, and an international liberalism founded on the same principles of Christian and democratic justice.

The old professional liberals have gone over to totalitarianism. They like subjection of man to the state, just as long as they can run the state.

The New Deal is burrowing its head in the slums and its hand in the ballot box toward continuous reelections. Where then is leadership for liberalism to spring, if not from the press.

You know your communities as perhaps no other citizen knows them. You deal with the public, with all business, with the workers, the politicians, the churches, the bankers.

Your business peculiarly fits you to understand the difference between a man-made state and a state-made man, you have only to compare your own newspaper with Pravda or the Voelkischer-Beobachter or the Popolo Romano.

Good leadership can not be conservative or reactionary, or, in fact, bound by any labels in this revolution. It should be sympathetic to the interests of all groups, analytical of the propaganda causes of all and strive only to be just and sound in the interest alone of the great mass average.

This Is What War Is

By John Steinbeck for the U. S. Treasury.

LONDON—I have seen the soldiers come down from the ships and stand in long lines on the docks, their "B" bags beside them and their packs on their backs and their rifles slung over their shoulders. They have come to a new country and it is strange to them. They are puzzled and although only a little time from home, they are homesick.

I have seen the supplies come in by the hundred shiploads, locomotives and tanks and trucks—acres of boxed food and great mounds of hams, shiploads of bombs stacked in from keel to hatch and all materials that we need at home—steel for bridges and buildings, food for our own people, material enough to make all America well fed and well housed and well clothed. And all to be dumped on the docks of a foreign country.

I have seen American railroad men shunting cars on the British line, men who got good pay on the B. & O., and on the New York Central and now with sergeant's stripes and sergeant's pay.

I have seen the men climb into the Fortress in the early morning and fly away with elaborate nonchalance and I have seen the gap in the mess when they did not come back and the empty bunks, the blankets thrown aside as they threw them, and the framed photographs on the steel lockers.

The men have gone up the gangways again to go into action and they jump from landing barges to a beach, strewn with the bodies of their own people, and they claw their way like animals into a hostile coast.

I have seen the hospitals with the mauled men, the legless and blind, the fingerless hands and the burned faces—all the destruction that steel and fire can do to a man's body and mind. I have seen children hauled out of a blasted building, lumps of crushed, dirty meat in pinafores, and dead—boxed and buried carrion. In God's name, what is it for except to get this horrible thing over with as quickly and as thoroughly as possible? And if this is true, it should not be a matter of "who will lend his money?" but "Who dares not to?"

Too Much Man for Army

By The Associated Press

CAMP LEE, Va. — Here is one fellow the Army didn't have a suit to fit.

William A. Sackel, Jr., wanted to get into the quartermasters, so he told recruiting officers he was six feet, six inches tall. He found the longest shirt sleeves struck him about the elbow. Army cots were much too short, the trousers were too tight, the shoes pinched his toes.

The Army gave him an honorable discharge. The tape measure showed he was six feet, 10 inches—too much of a man for the quartermaster corps.

Family Anniversary

By The Associated Press

SUMTER, S. C. — August 23 is going to be a big day hereafter for Mrs. D. W. Cutting, Jr.

In the first place, it's her birthday.

Also, its the birthday of her daughter, Mrs. W. R. Thompson of Alcolu.

To top it all, on August 23, this year, a daughter was born to Mrs. Thompson.

Forget Yourself in the Greater Good: "Ye have heard how I said unto you, I go away, and come again unto you. If ye loved me, ye would rejoice, because I said I go unto the Father: for my Father is greater than I."—John 14.28.

Blame the OPA

Typical headaches of OPA as reported by the department of information of the regional office in Cleveland:

A housewife wanted OPA to run an ad in the newspaper explaining that a servant eating all meals on the job should turn over his ration book. She planned to clip the ad and leave it where he would see it, hesitating to ask for the books directly for fear the servant would quit.

When police kept a woman from picking blackberries, she blamed the OPA for the enforcement of a local ordinance.

Men call the OPA because shirt tails have been shortened. Wage earners blame it because they can't get raises. Hunters complain because they can't buy shells. Liquor consumers blame it for liquor rationing.

MELANCHOLY DAYS ARE HERE AGAIN!

War Needs Threaten Natural Resources

Only Coal, Limestone, Lumber Called Beyond Danger.

THE ultimate cost of war, a fact often forgotten, is depletion of national resources. The direct financial cost involved while the war is in progress is merely an indication of the rate of use of natural wealth—iron ore, coal, oil, wood.

In a recent survey of America's natural resources, The Wall Street Journal declares that the rate of exhaustion of some of them is so rapid that every year of war brings this country measurably closer to the day when it may join the list of "have not" nations.

The best iron ore sources are given about 10 years at the present consumption pace. High-grade copper reserves would vanish in about 20 years. Available lead and zinc would disappear even sooner. High-grade bauxite for aluminum would be gone in another two or three years; this country has only limited resources of bauxite anyway.

Coal and limestone, on the other hand, will last for centuries. Reforestation should assure an inexhaustible supply of lumber. While known reserves of petroleum are commonly said to be enough for no more than 14 years, it is pointed out that petroleum sources have a habit of extending to new areas from year.

In many instances, explains The Wall Street Journal, when experts speak of the end of natural resources, they do not mean the absolute end, but the exhaustion of supplies which can be extracted and processed profitably at existing competitive levels. Thus, in the case of iron ore, exhaustion of the richest ore would mean development of new processes for handling low-grade ore.

In an editorial commenting on its survey, The Wall Street Journal recalls that many times in the country's history there has been acute alarm over the impending exhaustion of resources, but that in only one instance—land fertility—can it recall a case where a resource was exhausted while the demand for it was active.

"It is possible to cite cases where natural resources were hoarded—the word used was conserved—until the demand for them had passed," the newspaper commented, explaining further that the free use of resources for legitimate purposes always is justifiable.

ONE of the considerations involved, of course, is the possible effect on the future military power of the United States if depletion of its resources continues to the danger point.

Such a condition would entail a foreign policy aimed at insuring the country's security by access to resources of other areas. The credo of self-sufficiency would disappear.

But that may be borrowing trouble. In its survey of 10 resources, The Wall Street Journal reaches these conclusions:

Iron ore is being used at an enormous rate, but when the "cream" is gone less desirable sources can be exploited.

Coal reserves now are believed adequate for more than two centuries even at the present accelerated rate of consumption. Estimates of coal reserves are related closely to estimates of oil reserves, however. Shortage of petroleum would force the United States to extract oil from coal, thereby depleting coal reserves.

Now oil reserves are not sufficient to be reassuring, being limited to a little less than 14 years' supply at the present rate of use. Oil men estimate, moreover, that it might take as long as 50 years to recover all of today's known reserves.

Zinc mining already is into high-cost operations. A great deal of exploration and development work may reveal new sources.

There is only enough lead to last five more years at the present wartime rate, though this war is dealing more lightly with lead ore than the last one did. No new major ore bodies have been discovered for many years.

Mercury mines (quicksilver) seem to be adequate, though use of the fluid metal has probably more than doubled since 1940.

Limestone, found in every state in the union and quarried in all but three, shows no shortage for an indefinite number of years.

Lumber, the only natural resource that is subject to replacement, has become a critical war material. It is considered possible, however, even without increasing the forest area to increase the annual growth of new wood by billions of cubic feet.

From News of Other Years

TEN YEARS AGO.

It was Friday, Sept. 15, 1933.

An estimated 1,000 Marion county hunters went afield as the squirrel season opened.

Dever Walker, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Walker of Chicago avenue, left to enter Center college as a ministerial student.

Miss Virginia Hartsell of Cherry street left to spend the week-end at the World's fair in Chicago.

Mrs. Josephine Denny of Decatur, Ill., formerly Josephine McPherren of Marion, was visiting in Marion with Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Mathews of Cherry street and other relatives and friends.

William Foster of East Church street left for Delaware to attend Ohio Wesleyan university and Robert Felty of Pearl street left for Ohio University at Athens to begin his senior year studies.

An aged Marion county grandmother was mistaken for a burglar when she called at a son's farm home for a visit, found the family away and decided to wait and surprise them on their return. When her son came home at 11 p. m. and saw a figure moving in the house, he called the sheriff. By the time a deputy arrived, the grandmother, who had been crouching in a corner partially covered with a robe to carry out her "surprise" plans, made her presence known.

Mrs. Charles Mort was a guest when Mrs. C. C. Robinson entertained the Ever Happy club at her home on Lee street.

Mrs. Walter Moore of Sandusky was given a personal shower by members of the LeMinuet Salon club when Miss Arlette Roberts entertained at dinner and bridge at Hotel Harding.

A crowd estimated at 10,000 attended Marion county fair sessions after rain Wednesday and Thursday had upset harness racing programs, necessitating carrying over some events to Saturday. A Salt Rock township tug-o-war team won from a Big Island township team in one of the night fair features.

It was Saturday, Sept. 15, 1923.

Major E. L. Napier, flight sergeant at McCook field, Dayton, was killed in a plane crash at the field.

It was announced the campaign to raise $10,000 for expenses of the Y. M. C. A. here had fallen far short after three days of soliciting and that a crisis in the affairs of the association would result from failure to reach the goal.

Mrs. James Davey of Mansfield and Mrs. Edmund H. Keller of Marion won honors for the best score without handicap in the women's golf tournament at the Marion Country club. Mrs. Olsen of Mansfield and Mrs. Clifford Howser of Marion received awards for the best score with handicap.

The Susquehanna Silk Mills team of the industrial baseball league defeated the Hydraulic Press nine of Mt. Gilead, 11-1, and the Marion Steam Shovel team defeated the Osgood team, 15-2.

A daughter was born to Mr. and Mrs. Carl F. LaMarche of Mt. Vernon avenue.

Miss Helen Groll of Waldo and K. D. Sharp of Ashley were united in marriage at the Waldo Lutheran parsonage by Rev. S. C. Long.

Jungle Theatricals

Sad Story of High Class Act Who Was a Riot in Night Spot but a Flop on Trail in Jungle.

By DAMON RUNYON

"SO I go to this place out in the jungle where they tell me there are soldiers who wish to be amused and entertained and I figure my sunny and witty sayings and songs are just the thing to cheer them up there at night and find that it is by no means an inviting spot. In fact, I am greatly disappointed as the scenery is really quite darkness and besides I do not see any soldiers whatsoever present and I say to myself—

"But pardon my rudeness. I neglected to introduce the speaker, ladies and gentlemen. I take pleasure in presenting to you the peerless night club entertainer, Mr. Joe Reglades Lewis, just back from a tour of the south Pacific stations of our armed forces USO. Now then, Mr. Lewis, take it away.

"'Everglades,' I say to myself, 'this is the most depressing booking for a high class performer. It is worse than the time you played Altoona, you must send a sharp note to Mr. Morris's office when you return to the old town. If it gets back that you do not even draw flies out here you will be known as no-draw Lewis.' I speak to myself of the United States as the old country because the first time the guys over there ask you is 'how are the dames in the old country?' and I wish to state right here that I am hep to the soldier gab.

"I AM quite discouraged by the sights I describe as I travel many weary miles to give this show though I am not as discouraged as my piano player, Austin Mack, who is on the tour with me and who is discouraged more than as it is the first time he is ever away from his family over a sleeper jump and also because he does not have his piano with him but only his accordion and he is far from being Phil Ohman or Gypsy Markoff on a stomach harmonica.

"Well, all of a sudden out of the darkness comes a truck with about forty colored soldiers standing up in it and I can see that they must be my audience and I motion them to get off the truck and cluster around me but they do not move so I figure maybe the colored soldiers enjoy standing up and I start the show by singing for them 'Sam You Made The Pants Too Long.'

"As you know I kill the people in the Cafe Zanzibar palm in Miami with this song but the guys in the truck just stay dead pan on me and do not issue a ripple of applause. I say to myself, 'Everglades, maybe it is too classical for them.' So I sing 'The Groom Couldn't Get In.' You will remember how I panic the patrons of the Arrowhead in Saratoga and Bellemarden Riviera with it, but nothing from the truck.

"I SAY to myself, 'Everglades, maybe you are still too much Carnegie Hall for them' and I try 'Poor Little February.' Nothing. I try them 'The H. V. Kaltenborn Blues.' Nothing. I massacre the customers in the Chez Paree in Chicago with it. I annihilate them in Ciro's in Hollywood. Nothing here. Now I hit them with 'Please Mister President.' Nothing again.

"I say to myself, 'Everglades, this is getting to be sabotage.' So I try an imitation of Harry Richman. Nothing. Not a smile on an icicle kisser in the truck. I say to myself, 'Everglades maybe they are standing on their hands.' I say to Austin Mack, 'Austin, the accoustics here must be bad.' Austin says, 'Joe, I cannot start a thing on account of the noise this damn windbag is making.'

"WELL, I finally run out of material and am exhausted from not getting any sign or applause which is really most exhilarating indeed to a performer so I tell them the show is over and the truck drives away with all the soldiers still standing up in it and still dead pan. Then I sit down on the stump of a tree to have a good cry when up comes a captain and says to me like this:

"'Mr. Lewis,' he says, 'I wish to thank you for your wonderful performance. I am sure the boys enjoyed it though I fear they are not as demonstrative tonight as they will be under normal circumstances. You see, Mr. Lewis, this is the mumps truck.'

"'Captain,' I say, 'what is the mumps truck please?'

"'Why,' he says, 'all those fellows are victims of a small epidemic of mumps that is going on here and you will kindly forgive them for not laughing at your songs and witty sayings. Mr. Lewis, sir, they do not feel like laughing.'"

Cotton Corners

By Truman Twill

DEAR NEPHEW: The war news is good. It is so good that it is ceasing to be news. I asked your aunt the other day when I came back from a little trip over to Lime Ridge what the news was and she said there wasn't any news that the boys were still moving north in Italy and Russia still was chasing the Germans.

I suppose I must have mentioned this before but I wonder what is wrong with us Americans in this war. We don't seem to be getting any fun out of it. Get me straight, sonny. I don't mean that war is fun. What I mean is that from away back, men always have admitted they got a lot of satisfaction out of beating the living daylights out of their enemies in an honest fight.

Maybe I'm wrong, but I think all us people should be whooping and hollering over the collapse of Italy. Even if the Italians didn't play in the big leagues, beating them was a big thing for our side. I understand that here and there apparently in the big cities, there was some celebrating, but everywhere else the news was received in practically unbroken silence. No whistles blew. No one came rushing up and slapped me on the back and yell. "Hay, grandpa, we just beat one of the three members of the Axis." As far as that goes, I didn't do any shouting either. At the time I happened to be in the midst of estimating, within 20 per cent, what our customers are going to do until the end of the year.

When the meaning of the news sank home though, I felt like doing something about it and got up a bottle of elderberry wine—last year's vintage. Your aunt and I did a little quiet drinking, but on the second glass I got sleepy and went to bed. Maybe I'm too old to celebrate, but that doesn't excuse you younger fellows. I want you to plan on staging a whale of a dinner when Germany cracks. Take a day off. Give the world a prevue of the show that is going to be put on when the strutting little Mussolini follow their kraut-headed accomplices into Valhalla or wherever they go. I'll be in shape for that celebration if I have to get rolled in a wheel chair.

I am going to yell and sing. I am going to kiss old maids and pull blackout switches. I may bust a few windows. I will ring the fire house bell and see to it that someone turns on the whistle cord at the cheese factory. I am going to stay up all night and abuse my stomach. Besides that, I am going to do whatever my fancy may dictate at the moment throughout all of it, I am going to say a few minutes that I am darned proud to be one of the leading citizens in a country that wins its wars. Then, just before I topple over exhausted I am going to eat everything in sight left and go to sleep with a clear conscience because I have performed my patriotic duty.

Cotton Corners. Uncle Truman.

Will You Make This A Day For Our Heroes of America?

Buy a bond tomorrow to honor someone you know in the service

Washington wept in his heart for his freezing troops—
And saw blood on the ice where shoeless feet had trod.
"A strong nation is not born of indulgence and ease."

Oh, heroes of America, who are abroad in the earth today,
Enmeshed in the hot and unreasoning machinery of war—
We would not have you know how we cling to our dollars—
Our cowardly, slacker dollars, while you die for us.

Franklin, Jefferson, Hamilton, Hancock, Henry—
"If a people hate war too much to risk all for freedom
At the drop of a hat—freedom will be taken from them."

Forefathers of America, who carried the fearful weight
Of a rebellion and a whole nation on your shoulders—
Who dared to face complete destruction—turn from the sight
Of our swollen bank accounts, and our little ideas
Of how few bonds pay the price of our rich inheritance.

Lincoln . . . with the great rugged soul of you suffering—
Risking the life of the Union to save it,
Help us to be a credit to ourselves—and to our children.

American heroes! Boys and men from farms and towns,
From stark cities, from plains and woods and mountains,
Who are laying your lives at our feet for our freedom—
Wait now . . . for the impact of this successful hunt
Which beats out from corners and vaults,
From dark and secret places, our dollars—too decent
To remain in hiding when lending them is our duty,
Our PRIVILEGE—and your due.

★ If you POSSIBLY can . . . you must buy a bond TOMORROW . . . else shame the collective heart of America. For tomorrow, all over the country, we all buy a bond in honor of a man or woman at war. Get tough with your money. Whip it out and make it buy bullets and bombs. Only slackers nurse slacker dollars. Send MORE of your dollars to war, to fight. Do it tomorrow, for it is AMERICAN HEROES DAY.

It's EASY to Buy BONDS

It's as easy to buy bonds as to buy shirts or socks. Go into any store or place that's an issuing agent. Pay your money—wait while the bond is typed out with your own name and address—and take the bond away with you. You pay $18.75 for a bond you cash in for $25 in 10 years—$37.50 for a $50 bond, $75 for a $100 bond, $750 for a $1000 bond. If you need your money before the bond matures you can get your money back with earned interest. Lend now for your future.

Whose War IS This?

This isn't the soldiers' and sailors' war. It's yours and mine. It's America—and all we stand for—that the Axis is fighting. That's you and me. We don't have to go to the front to fight—we can send our money. If we don't do that, we're coasting while others carry the fight at the front and at home. Everyone is either "motive power" or a drag on the war. Do all your share. In honor of a fighter you know—or know about—buy a bond today!

Academy of Medicine Group Sponsors Hospital Benefit

THE Marion Country club was the attractive setting for the style show and benefit bridge party at which the members of the Woman's Auxiliary to the Marion Academy of Medicine were hostesses last evening in the interest of their work at the Marion City hospital. Seventy tables were arranged for cards in the club lounge, which was colorful with bouquets of fall flowers and a highlight of the evening was the style show. One of the most popular spots during the evening was the sandwich bar, where Mrs. J. A. Dodd was in charge, assisted by Mrs. J. G. McNamara, Mrs. Carl W. Sawyer, Mrs. Harry Merchant and Mrs. J. W. Bull.

The guests were received by Mrs. F. L. Thomas, Mrs. J. W. Jolley, Mrs. R. T. Morgan and Mrs. E. H. Morgan, serving as a reception committee.

Prizes were won during the evening by Mrs. C. A. Bough, first, Miss Mae Hannegan, second, Mrs. Clyde Ullom, third and Mrs. Dexter Hazen, fourth.

Mrs. R. L. Gettman, Mrs. Jay L. Plymale, Mrs. George Glosser, Miss Louise Foreman and Beulah Rae Bull modeled casual, street, sport, afternoon, cocktail and dinner costumes during the style show. Music for the show was furnished by Miss Rosaline Manzo, pianist who also played as the guests were arriving. A number of patrons joined the guests for the style show.

An afghan, given as a special award, was won by Mrs. J. K. Staats. Assisting in the sale of tickets for this event were Jean Leffler, Elizabeth Leeper, Bonnie Kemmerly and Mary Alice Bowman, Girl Scouts, and distributing the awards were Ruth Bull, Mary Jean Smith and Mary Gore, costumed in white gowns and caps.

Proceeds for the evening will net the sponsors approximately $150, Mrs. H. K. Mouser, president of the auxiliary estimated today. The money will be used to furnish a library and study for the doctors in the new wing of the City hospital now nearing completion.

Flowers were furnished by the House and Garden club and in charge of arrangements were Mrs. T. H. Sutherland, a member of the auxiliary, Mrs. David Coble and Miss Mabel Wheatley, Mrs. Fillmore Young was in charge of cards and tallies and Mrs. Frederick C. Rea was responsible for the house arrangements. Arrangements for the special award was in charge of Mrs. C. G. Smith and Mrs. Floyd Yeager served as ticket chairman. On Mrs. Yeager's committee were Mrs. Lucretia Taylor, Mrs. Frederick Merchant, Mrs. Warren Sawyer and Mrs. Wendorf.

Season Opened By Altrusa Club at Wallace Home

PLANS for the 1943-44 season got under way for the Altrusa club when the members met last evening at the home of Mrs. B. L. Wallace of Homer street. Miss Irene Reynolds was an associate hostess.

Miss Ruth Kleinmaier, who will serve as president this year, presided, and following the business session there was a social hour. Miss Kleinmaier and Miss Jessie Lindsey will represent the club at the annual conference of District No. 4 to be held in Toledo Oct. 22 and 23. Miss Ruth Kramer is governor and Mrs. Wendell Wiant is secretary of the district group. Plans for the conference which will be held at the Commodore Hotel, are being made by the district officers. Alternates chosen to represent the club at the conference are Miss Mary Margaret O'Donnell and Miss Ruth Turner. Activities include a joint meeting with the Marion Association of University Women at which there will be a speaker. Miss Helen Bowe is chairman for a club benefit project. Miss Ruth Kramer gave a report of the international conference of Altrusa club officers held at Chicago during the summer, which took the place of a convention, cancelled during the war period. The club will meet for a picnic Sept. 28 at Miss Mary Kull's farm southeast of Caledonia.

BOND SLOGAN SINGER. When you hear "Back the Attack"—the slogan song of the Third War Loan drive on the radio or in entertainment spots all over the nation, you'll probably be listening to Mary Small. DECLARES MOST U. S. DRINKERS MODERATE

By The Associated Press

U. S. C. Sept. 15— [illegible] Americans are moderate [illegible] beverages [illegible] beer and wine

HEALTH QUIZ

	YES	NO
Do you have poor digestion?	☐	☐
Do you feel headachy after eating?	☐	☐
Do you get sour or upset easily?	☐	☐
Do you feel tired—listless?	☐	☐

Everyone knows that to get the good out of food you eat—you must digest it. But what most people don't know is that Nature must produce about a pint of the digestive juice—liver juice—every day to help digest your food. If she fails—your food may remain undigested, sour and heavy in your stomach.

It is simple to see that one way to help Nature is to increase the flow of digestive juice. Now, Carter's Little Liver Pills are famous to increase this flow quickly and gently—often in as little as thirty minutes. When the flow increases, your digestion may improve. And, soon you're on the way to feeling better—which is the way after you've depended on artificial aids to counteract constipation—when Carter's aid to Nature's own order, when Nature is corrected. Get Carter's Little Liver Pills today—at any drugstore—and see if you will be glad you did.

industries, R. Glen Dunn, chairman of the Michigan liquor control commission asserted today.

Dunn, in an address prepared for the annual conference of the National Alcoholic Beverage Control association—a liquor industry sponsored group, pleaded for an intelligent, knowledge attack on alcohol problems in which dry elements might supervise.

"We must win the respect and cooperation of honest, fair-minded drys who sincerely seek a real solution of the problems which revolve around this business," he declared.

"Only 5 per cent of our people abuse the privilege of using alcoholic liquors. Some of these, the alcoholics, are sick men who require medical or just plain care which it is our responsibility to see that they obtain.

"Some are heedless and careless men the drunken driver and the pay day drunk, against whom stronger methods will have to be used."

Dunn listed five types of trouble-makers whose control or elimination would go much to bring to this (liquor) business the status enjoyed by any other legitimate business.

These, he said, include drunken drivers, alcoholics, unqualified licensed liquor retailers, the inveterate drunkers "who drink to get drunk" juvenile delinquents who frequent [illegible] and [illegible] violators of [illegible] laws.

"If we succeed in controlling them," Dunn added, "we have gone a long way down the road to [illegible] the success of [illegible]. These are the men [illegible] owners and licensees must [illegible] as the real threats to their continuity in business."

Wonder what the folks at home are doing?...

Have you ever wondered what the crew of a Yank bomber thinks as they "sweat it out" over an enemy target?

This report will give you an idea. It's by a correspondent who rode with the crew in a low level bomber as they began their bombing run at less than 1,000 feet.

"On the way over, the boys were nervous. There was perspiration on both control wheels . . . you could see it on the bombardier's forehead . . . the pilot's hat was soaked through.

"The flak was heavy as we stopped corkscrewing and went into our bombing run. The bombs trickled out in torrents and made big, round footsteps all over the twin airfields. Then came the fighters—Lightnings tangling with Focke-Wulfs . . .

"When it was over, our formation corkscrewed out to the coast again. Then I heard the pilot mutter, 'I wonder what the folks at home are doing now'."

Some day the finest bunch of boys who ever sweat it out on land, sea and in the air for you, will ask us face to face—"What were you doing then?"

They must not think that we are too complacent in September, 1943, to realize that the way to Victory will still be long and filled with pain. They need our help as we need theirs—today!

2 Soldiers from Marion Meet for First Time at War Base

Sgt. Bolinger, Left, and Staff Sgt. Strawser.

An Army payroll, handled by an assistant to the chief clerk in a base finance section in the mid-Pacific area brought together two Marion men who had not met before being stationed at the base thousands of miles from home.

They are Staff Sgts. Lloyd D. Strawser, the clerk, and Kenneth W. Bolinger, non-commissioned officer and department head there.

Sgt. Bolinger, former manager of the Logan County Lumber and Supply Co., Bellefontaine, was assistant manager of the Avenue Lumber and Supply Co. in Marion a short time before entering the service. Sgt. Strawser, a graduate of Harding High school here, was formerly employed in the accounting department of a Long Beach, Calif., company.

The former's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Glen D. Bolinger of Edison, and his wife, Mrs. Patricia Stoll Bolinger, is a Marion resident. Sgt. Strawser attended the same classes at Harding High in which Mrs. Bolinger was enrolled.

Sgt. Bolinger, arrived at a Pacific area station in May, 1942, was assigned to be in charge of the Link Trainer department of his base, with the responsibility of keeping pilots stationed there "on their toe" on instrument flying. A month and a half earlier, Sgt. Strawser had arrived at a near-by station and was assigned the finance department job there.

A few months later, a letter from relatives here informed Sgt. Strawser that a Marion man, Sgt. Bolinger, was located on the island. When, a few months ago, a supplementary payroll came to Sgt. Strawser's desk the first name on the list was Sgt. Bolinger's, the address Marion. A telephone call to his station brought about the meeting. Not long afterward, Sgt. Bolinger was transferred to the same base with Sgt. Strawser.

NAZI PROPAGANDA TUNE CHANGES

By The Associated Press

LONDON, Sept. 15—The German propaganda machine radically changed its tune today, not only admitting that the allied forces in the Salerno bridgehead had not been evacuated but were "offering resistance" near the coast under cover of naval guns.

Yesterday, the Germans said warcraft were being used to cover a withdrawal.

Today's Nazi communique continued to assert the allies were suffering heavy losses, but the German radio in its mid-day news bulletin today made no mention of the Italian front. Yesterday it had issued an endless stream of victory reports.

The toning down began last midnight when a Nazi communique observed, "the allies have got their teeth into Salerno and even the not inexperienced soldiers find it difficult to push them back into the sea."

The Berlin radio today was recorded by The Associated Press as emphasizing the "extreme violence of the fighting there between the 8th American army and the German divisions."

DRAFT

sary to induct some 75,000 men a month merely to keep the army up to current strength, because of discharges, casualties and similar losses of effectives.

"Any curtailment, reduction or postponement of an army of 7,700,000 on Dec. 31, 1943, will necessitate a change in our strategical commitments," McNarney testified.

"Whoever initiates such a change must assume the grave responsibility for ignoring the considered judgment of our military leaders arrived at after careful and prolonged studies."

Reverses Temper Demands

Congressional agitation for exempting fathers from the draft was tempered by military reverses in Italy and reports that President Roosevelt is preparing to oppose any such legislation.

Action on the Wheeler no-father draft bill likely will be delayed at least until next week while the senate military committee quizzes top-ranking Army and Navy Chiefs on the the need for more fighting men.

Chairman Reynolds (D-NC) announced this all-star cast of witnesses for a series of hearings beginning today:

Admiral Ernest J. King, chief of naval operations.

General George C. Marshal, Army chief of staff.

Undersecretary of War Robert P. Patterson.

Lt. Gen. Joseph T. McNarney, deputy chief of staff and Marshall's right hand man.

Maj. Gen. Lewis B. Hershey, selective service director.

With the exception of Marshall, all were slated to testify today. The army chief is expected to appear Monday.

Senator Wheeler (D-Mont), author of a bill already approved by the committee to defer the induction of pre-Pearl Harbor fathers for the remainder of this year, told the senate he did not object to the hearings but served notice he would call up his measure for debate and vote at the first possible opening.

He was temporarily stymied by other legislation which had the right of way and which may consume considerable time. Unless congress acts, the induction of fathers on a nationwide scale is scheduled to begin Oct. 1 or shortly thereafter.

President Roosevelt disclosed at a news conference yesterday that he has been discussing the father draft question with congressional leaders. One thing might be made clear, he said—the fact that if a man is in an essential war industry he would not be drafted.

Reports circulated on Capitol Hill that the President would tell congess in a message Friday that the needs of the armed forces should come first.

Salerno Position Difficult, but Generally Good

By DEWITT MACKENZIE

Difficulties such as our troops are encountering on the open beaches of Salerno are bound to cause worry among the folks back here at home, especially since casualties apparently have been severe, but there is no reason why we shouldn't regard with complete confidence the general position of our battle with the Hitlerites in an already beaten Italy.

Even if the Fifth Army units had to withdraw entirely from Salerno, as the lying German propaganda machine yesterday said they were doing, it wouldn't represent a major defeat from the standpoint of the Italian operations as a whole. It would be a nasty but not fatal setback.

In order to have a correct picture of the situation we must know that the Nazis have no expectation whatever of preventing allied occupation of Italy. Their tactics represent an act of desperation which is being carried out largely to try to restore in some degree their shattered prestige, and partly in the hope of delaying the allies in undertaking other invasion operations.

Problem of Terrain

Our troubles at Salerno haven't been due to the massing of great German strength — though we seem to have been outnumbered numerically—but to the fact that the Hitlerites were well established with artillery on the hills overlooking the landing-stages. Our boys had to struggle ashore under heavy gunfire from the heights, and fight their way up the sloping beaches in the face of fierce attacks from tanks and infantry.

I've sailed along those shores, and have motored and hiked in that neighborhood, under the shadows of old Vesuvius. It's beautiful in many parts, from an artist's viewpoint, but it's a devilish sector for a soldier to have to invade from the sea.

It doesn't take a big force to defend such admirable positions as are held by the Germans. Actually they are said to have one infantry and two mechanized divisions—or parts of divisions—in the Salerno sector. Full divisions would represent between 35,000 and 40,000 men.

Concentration of these troops on the heights has made it extremely difficult for us to create a heavy attacking force from our invasion units at the beachhead. However, the Yanks obviously have done a sizable job, for at last reports they were holding a 24-mile beachhead and were in possession of the city of Salerno—a place of some 70,000 inhabitants.

Nazis Seize Excuse

Apparently in the early stages of the fighting we did have to withdraw a unit from one point in the beachhead and send it in at another place. So far as information from allied headquarters goes this represents the sole excuse for Berlin's claims that we were withdrawing wholesale and were beaten. On the contrary, latest advices are that General Eisenhower is pouring reinforcements into the Salerno battle and that the sea is black with transports in that area.

Meanwhile General Montgomery's British Eighth army is pushing northward in two columns from the heel and toe. These columns now are something less than 100 miles from Salerno. They aren't encountering much armed resistance, although they are hampered by mines and Nazi demolitions along the highways, and they are moving so fast that they may reach Salerno in a week or so. An attack on the German rear would change the complexion of things.

As a matter of fact, the position of the Germans at Salerno is far from enviable. They've been more or less cut loose on their own, with bad communications to the north, to carry out a suicide job. Their game will be to hit and run—if they can—when Montgomery's troops arrive and things get too hot.

As the signs now read, the allies should be able to make reasonable progress up the southern half of the peninsula. The fighting is likely to intensify from Rome northward, and will reach its peak along the Po river in the far north, where the wily Marshal Rommel again is plotting holding operations such as gained him fame in Africa. Much will depend on air power, and we have a superiority.

BRITAIN'S NEAR EAST ARMY NOW ON MOVE

By The Associated Press

LONDON, Sept. 15—Unconfirmed reports reaching London from Stockholm via Ankara today said that Britain's great 9th Army unit force which the Germans assert may been designated for an allied drive into the Balkans—was on the move today from its Middle East bases facing the island pathway into Greece.

British military officials had no comment to make on the Ankara report, published in the Stockholm Svenska Dagbladet, which said that Gen. Sir Henry Maitland Wilson's army had embarked for an "unknown destination."

The dispatch coincided here, however, with authentic accounts of ferment in the Balkans, of sweeping new successes of Yugoslav guerrillas, and reports of fierce fighting between German and Italian troops in the Dodecanese islands off the Turkish mainland.

The Algiers radio, in a broadcast recorded here by The Associated Press, today again forecast that "important new military developments are imminent," and it was pointed out that the surrender of the Italian navy has cleared the Mediterranean for any assault against German positions in southeastern Europe.

TOLEDO

will not be affected by the strike, it was announced.

Carl Benson, president of the AFL Toledo federation of teachers, said the teachers would not strike, but would refuse to cross picket lines.

Both the non-educational employes and the teachers asked salary adjustments to meet advanced living expenses at a meeting of the Toledo board of education Monday night. The teachers requested a $360 a year salary increase.

Spokesmen for the school maintenance unions said the strike had been called after failure of the board to have a quorum Monday and to call a meeting yesterday, indicating its members had "washed their hands of the affair."

Edward Evans, president of the board, said "this is a fight to the finish."

No statement concerning the strike has come from the Toledo Federation of Teachers, an American Federation of Labor affiliate, which contributed to the deadlock Monday night by demanding for its teacher members the same raise sought by the noneducational workers.

Pickets usually consisted of three or four employes at various schools. At one, they filled in their time as crossing guards.

BIRTHS

A daughter was born to Mr. and Mrs. Robert Cutlit of the Lincoln Park Trailer Camp in City hospital last night. The mother is the former Miss Jean Swope of Marion.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Stiffler of Prospect are parents of a daughter born in their home last night. The mother and child were removed to City hospital where the condition of both is reported as good today.

crease permanently the amount of their payroll deduction for war bond purchases.

Reports from Factories

The industrial phase of the campaign was making definite progress today, with payroll deduction workers getting in line with the nationwide appeal for the purchase of many extra bonds this month to assure victory in the $15,000,000,000 effort. Harold Grigsby, payroll division chairman for the duration, said Alloy Cast Steel Co. drive workers were to meet this afternoon to outline their part in the drive, and that he and J. T. Lynch, the treasury representative named to work on payroll deduction purchases at that factory, would meet with the group. Other meetings are being set up for Thursday at the Huber Mfg. Co. and the Defiance Pressed Steel Co. plants.

Some Circus Seats Left

"Just a few more left" was the report this morning at the drive headquarters at 116 North State street where war bond seats for the Friday performances of the Ringling Brothers - Barnum & Bailey Circus are being sold. Only afternoon seats are now available in the war bond section of seats donated by the circus to help the Third War Loan drive. The last of the night performance seats were sold yesterday.

State of Delaware Tops Bond Sales

By The Associated Press

WASHINGTON, Sept. 15—Delaware held top place today in the treasury's first nationwide progress report on the $15,000,000,000 Third war loan, but New York drew special commendation for placing second.

With bond sales through Monday totaling $17,000,000, Delaware achieved 34 per cent of its $49,000,000 quota. New York, however, with a quota of $4,709,000,000, or more than 25 per cent of the national total, reported sales of $1,294,000,000 to attain 28 per cent of its goal.

The treasury meanwhile set aside Friday as "Back Salerno" day in the drive as a tribute to American soldiers fighting to hold their bridgehead on the Italian mainland.

GALION—A daughter was born at Galion City hospital Monday to Mr. and Mrs. Harry Newhon of near Mt. Gilead.

75 Horses Here for Movie Races Include Stars of Grand Circuit

A count of noses at the Marion county fairground this morning showed that already more than 75 horses are on the grounds awaiting Starter Harvey Hartman's go signal tomorrow afternoon in the opening sprint of Marion's grand 1943 harness meeting—a session arranged especially in cooperation with the Twentieth Century-Fox studios for the filming of "Home in Indiana," a technicolor production based on George Agnew Chamberlain's novel, "The Phantom Filly."

Among the stables represented in the huge fairground colony are those of Harry Fitzpatrick of Springfield, Ill. by Shively of Miami, Okla. Fred Eagen of Aiken, S. C., and Ben White of Lexington, Ky., outstanding stars of the Grand Circuit.

Among yesterday's arrivals was two horses from the stable of Ben White of Lexington, the world's only four-time Hambletonian winner. The aged Mr. White notched his fourth victory in the trotting classic by trouncing a sturdy field of trotters with Brooklyn-owned Volo Song.

White's Horses

The White representation here includes Director, a two-year-old trotting sensation owned by E. J. Merkle of Columbus, and Gordon Gray, an impressive three-year-old trotter owned by W. H. Reynolds, world famous tobacco tycoon.

Expected to arrive either today or early tomorrow are horses from Vic Fleming's Goshen, N. Y., stable. The Goshen pilot has ordered stall space for four head.

Already on the grounds is the world's most expensive horse—King's Counsel, formerly the property of Dr. H. M. Parshall of Urbana, O., and E. P. Cray of Bellow Falls, Vt., but now owned by E. J. Baker of St. Charles, Ill. Mr. Baker, a wealthy mid-western hotel operator, purchased the sterling pacer last Wednesday for $20,000.

Horsemen now at the fairgrounds are saying that even at $20,000 the bay son of Volomite was a steal for Mr. Baker. Before becoming a member of the Fitzpatrick stable, the three-year-old champion won more than $20,000 for his owners. He's still burning up the tracks. His present record—2.00½ on a mile track—was set only a couple of months ago at Cleveland's North Randall layout. After a slow start this season the big bay breezed to eight wins in 12 starts.

Won Opener Here

He won his opening race of the season at the Marion twice-around but was beaten in his four starts at North Randall. In his fifth go there he fashioned the new record, which still stands as the fastest mile run by a horse this season and also is a world's record time for a race.

So, while the purchase startled the trotting world, it is easy to see that $20,000 wasn't out of reason.

Awaiting race fans for the opening matinee session tomorrow is a 12-dash card including 12 and 24 pacing events and 12 and 18 trots. Purses of $500 each have been posted for the 12 class events in both gaits, while the other two events are worth $400 each.

Program for the remainder of the week is as follows:

FRIDAY

Free-for-all pace	$400
22 class trot	$400
19 class pace	$400

SATURDAY

Two-year-old trot	$1,000
Three-year-old trot	$1,000

Boys Tie Up Fireman, Flee Industrial School

LANCASTER, O., Sept. 15—Three inmates of the boys industrial school tied up a power house fireman and his inmate helper early today and fled, armed with the fireman's pistol.

Sheriff Dudley Crider said he was informed the youths were Arthur Plau, 16, of Cleveland, John Steeds, 16, of Shaker Heights, and Donald Altop, 17, of Salem.

The escape occurred shortly after 3 a. m. and a few hours later three youths attempted to stop a farmer driving an automobile south of the reformatory, but he escaped them, Crider said.

The three invaded the powerhouse, Crider said, trussed up Royal Wolfe the fireman and the inmate who was helping him, then took a pistol from Wolfe's room and fled.

Proposes Repeal of Victory Tax To Simplify Returns

WASHINGTON, Sept. 15—Repeal of the 5 per cent victory tax was proposed by a member of the house ways and means committee today as a cure for the decimal point jitters suffered by many income tax payers.

Rep. Robertson, Democrat of Virginia, member of the committee which originated the tax, said there must be some simpler way of collecting the $2,000,000,000 a year netted from the victory levy.

Capitol Hill heard meanwhile the administration probably would present to congress Sept. 20, not a specific program to raise more wartime revenue, but several alternative plans for digging deeper into taxpayers' pockets.

The administration's tax procedures were reported to have been decided upon finally yesterday at a White House conference.

Robertson did not suggest a specific substitute for the victory tax, but some authorities were known to be discussing a 5 per cent sales tax as a possible alternative. However, congressional tax leaders privately expressed doubt that there is much prospect for enactment of a sales tax.

Chairman Doughton, Democrat of North Carolina, called the ways and means committee into a closed meeting tonight for a discussion with treasury and congressional tax experts of the various proposals for simplifying the income tax return.

JAPS FACING LOSS OF LAE

Await Same Fate That Befell Most of Garrison at Salamaua.

By The Associated Press

ALLIED HEADQUARTERS IN THE SOUTHWEST PACIFIC, Sept. 15—Japanese faced with annihilation at Lae, New Guinea—fate which has overtaken most of the routed Salamaua garrison—fell back today before allied pincer forces on two sides of the big air base.

Allied forces landed from the sea above Lae on Sept. 4 now stand only a mile from the southern end of the Malahang airdrome, the bigger of two at Lae. This force reached that point by seizing the village of New Yanga, half way between the airdrome and the Busu river.

Americans and Australians who landed from transport planes in the Markham valley Sept. 5 have swept through two prepared positions west of Lae and are expected momentarily to engage in bitter fighting with Japanese at Heath's plantation, eight miles from the town.

Eighteen miles below Lae, where the allies have captured the airdrome and harbor town of Salamaua, General MacArthur's headquarters said "the enemy is completely routed and his forces destroyed." Only a few scattered groups succeeded in fleeing into nearby jungles.

The opposing airforces exchanged blows but the most damaging one was delivered by the allies against Wewak, New Guinea. On airdromes in that area, 350 miles above the ground front, the allies in five raids during August destroyed more than 360 enemy aircraft, many of them caught wingtip to wingtip on the ground.

Monday some bombers and fighters which the Japanese had moved in on airdromes at Dagua were surprised in a similar lineup by Liberators which set between 20 and 25 of them ablaze. Escorting Lightnings tangled with swarms of enemy fighters, shooting down eight for certain and probably four others. Three Lightnings were lost but all the Liberators reached home.

FACES CHAIR TONIGHT

COLUMBUS, O., Sept. 15—Gov. Bricker refused today to intervene in the scheduled execution tonight of Ervin Griffin, 19-year-old Negro convicted of murder in the robbery-slaying last Thanksgiving morning of William C. Conkle in Columbus' railroad district.

School Enrollment Total Now 5,521

Additional registrations yesterday and today at the various public schools in the city brought the total registration to 5,521, figures at the office of Supt. E. E. Holt show. The enrollment to date is 129 less than last year. Enrollments by schools are as follows:

Forest Lawn, 169; George Washington, 164; Glenwood, 399; Greenwood, 209; Mark, 388, North Main, 220; Oak, 236; Oakland, 394; Olney, 263; Silver, 380; Central, 638; Edison, 503; Vernon Heights.

The increase is due for the 351; Pearl, 345; Harding High, 862, most part to pupils moving in from districts outside of Marion.

Surviving besides the parents and brother are a sister, Mrs. Merle Peacock of 639 Pearl street, a nephew, James Kenneth Peacock, niece, Pamela Merle Peacock, and maternal grandmother, Mrs. Mattie Wottring of Prospect.

The body will be sent from Texas Thursday morning.

STILL CRITICAL

CLEVELAND, Sept. 15—After a "restless night," Archbishop Joseph Schrembs still was in critical condition today, St. John's hospital attendants reported. The archbishop, 77-year-old head of the Cleveland Catholic diocese, remains conscious, however. He was stricken Aug. 30 with complications of uremia and high blood pressure.

China Wants Formosa, Korea Taken from Japs

By The Associated Press

WASHINGTON, Sept. 15—China's first major declaration of policy on postwar territory in the Far East, voiced by Foreign Minister T. V. Soong, called today for complete eradication of Japanese influence in strategic Korea and Formosa.

Japan annexed the Korean peninsula in 1910 but patriots have fought Nippon's domination ever since and still have a "free Korean" organization.

Formosa, an island between Japan and the Philippines, was ceded by China after Sino-Japanese conflict in 1895.

Soong laid down this tentative blueprint of Chinese aims at a press conference yesterday.

He said Korea should be made independent and Formosa should become a part of the Republic of China.

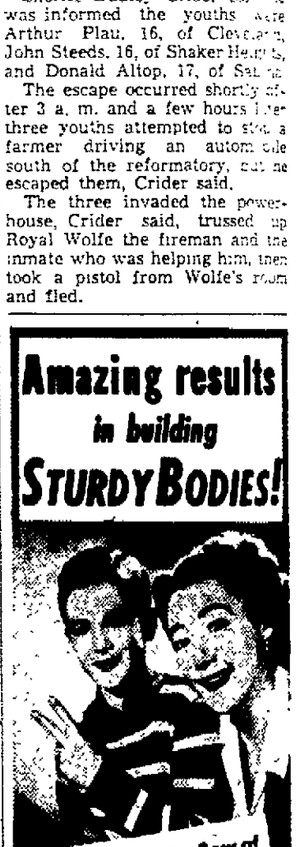
Amazing results in building STURDY BODIES!



1—Promote the flow of vital digestive juices in the stomach
2—Energize your body with RICH, RED BLOOD!

YOUNG people, especially those of grammar and high school age, are prone to be deficient in stomach digestive juices and red-blood.

A growing person who is operating on a 65 to 70% healthy blood volume or a stomach digestive capacity of only 50 to 60% normal is severely handicapped. In such cases Nature needs extra help. Organic troubles or focal infection if they exist, must be corrected. Tissue foods must be digested and rich, red-blood must be present to build sturdy bodies.

888 Tonic is especially designed to build-up BLOOD STRENGTH when deficient . . . and to promote those STOMACH JUICES which digest the food so the body can make proper use of it in tissue building and repair.

These two important results enable the body to make use of the food as Nature intended. Thus you may gain keen appetite . . . firm flesh . . . body energy . . . mental alertness!

Build Sturdy Health and Help America Win

Thousands and thousands of users have testified to the benefits 888 Tonic has brought to them and scientific research shows that it gets results—that's why so many say "888 Tonic builds sturdy health—makes you feel like yourself again." At drug stores in 10 and 20 oz. sizes. S.S.S. Co.

Poll Favors Drafting Single Men in Industry Before Fathers

by GEORGE GALLUP
Director, American Institute of Public Opinion

PRINCETON, N. J., Sept. 15—With the agenda of business before the senate as it reconvened today the Wheeler bill to delay the drafting of fathers, senators, and the Army, faced with a choice of inducting fathers, or of being forced to deny single men who are employed in essential war industries, possibly of putting through a draft of single women for combat Army jobs in order to release soldiers for the battle front, public opinion is convinced there is considerable reluctance at present to the drafting of fathers. A nation-wide survey reported last week showed, for example, that if it came to a choice between drafting single women for non-fighting jobs in the Army or drafting fathers for the same jobs, the great majority would prefer to induct the women.

And in another survey which has just been completed there is a heavy majority vote in favor of inducting unmarried men now employed in war industries before drafting fathers even in non-essential industries. This issue was put to men and women of all classes from coast to coast as follows:

"If the Army needs more men, who do you think should be drafted first—single men who are employed in essential war industries, or fathers who are NOT employed in essential war industries?"

Favor drafting single men in war industries before drafting fathers	68%
Favor drafting fathers	24
Undecided	8

These results raise the question of how the unmarried men in war industries would be replaced if they were drafted.

The public is already on record as favoring a national service act along the lines of the Austin-Wadsworth bill which would conscript civilian manpower for jobs in war industries.

Attitude Defined

In other words, what the public seems to favor is a situation whereby the single men will do the fighting, while married men with children, and men beyond draft age, stay home to run the factories. If the latter groups do not volunteer for jobs in war industries in sufficient numbers, then the public thinks they should be conscripted for such jobs.

The principal objections raised by the public to drafting married men is that it would lead to the breaking up of too many families where there are children. The constant argument is: "Single men have no dependents and fewer responsibilities; they should go before the fathers." Others claim that fathers would not make good soldiers, both because they are older and because they would worry too much about the welfare of their children back home. Still another argument raised is that whereas single men in war industries could be replaced by the fathers, there is no one to take the place of a father as the head of a family if he goes away.

On Other Side

The principal argument put up by voters on the other side—those who think fathers should be drafted before single men in war industries—is that everyone must shoulder the burden of war and that fathers are no exception, no matter how unpleasant the required tasks may be.

Many also say that single men in war industries are more useful now than fathers in non-essential industries, and that nothing should be done to disrupt war production by too much shifting of personnel.

Majors Offer Only 2nd Place Races

By JUDSON BAILEY
Associated Press Sports Writer

In the absence of anything to write as a pennant race, the major leagues are offering the next best thing—a wide open battle for second place in both circuits.

The rumor and fact that the world champion Cardinals have the National league and between the Brooklyn Dodgers and Cincinnati Reds in the National league just as much as the Browns and Yanks are first place.

The Senators, who finished seventh a year ago, are earnestly seeking the second spot this season, and in the last five days have put on a spurt of five consecutive victories. This drive coupled with a double setback for Cleveland last night, was enough to place Washington again in the American league's runner-up spot.

Playing the Boston Red Sox in a night game, the Senators had their hands full, but a single by Gerry Priddy in the seventh inning knocked in the go-ahead run for a 3-2 victory.

At St. Louis the Indians, who previously had won six out of seven games, were tumbled twice by the Browns 3-0 and 7-1 and dropped back to third place by a game and a half.

The Brooklyn Dodgers, who moved into second place last week-end on the crest of a winning streak that numbered 14 victories in 15 games, were blanked 3-0 by the Boston Braves and saw their margin over the idle Cincinnati Reds shaved to half a game.

In the only other senior circuit encounter, the New York Giants and Philadelphia Phillies, who already were scheduled for a game at 11 o'clock (EWT) this morning, struggled to a 4-4 ten-inning tie in a night game called by baseball curfew rules at 1 o'clock this morning after twice being interrupted by weather. As the result today's program at Philadelphia was made into a morning doubleheader.

The New York Yankees downed the Philadelphia Athletics 6-5 with an inept exhibition in which Bill Zuber granted 11 bases on balls in 4 1-3 innings and Detroit divided a doubleheader with Chicago. The White Sox took the first 7-1 and the Tigers the second 7-5.

SINKWICH BARGAINS JUST LIKE HE RUNS

By The Associated Press

DETROIT, Sept. 15—Small Frankie Sinkwich, who could run, pass and kick for the Detroit Lions football season, made a big impression here before he ever had hands on a football for the pro team.

The whiz of the southern college gridiron, where he became an All-American, had manager Fred L. Mandel, Jr., of the Lions dazed on his one-yard line, figuratively speaking, before he got Frankie's name on a contract.

Sinkwich signed last night only after hours of conference. Frankie lined up at the negotiating table with his dad, Ignatius (Ignatz) Sinkwich, who operates a tavern in their home town of Youngstown, O. Mandel was all alone.

Finally Mandel emerged to announce the signing and pay tribute, inadvertently, to the former Georgia star's class as a bargainer.

"If he can play football as well as he can argue about dough," Mandel said, "we ought to win the championship easily."

Mandel declined to say how much Frankie would be paid.

Frankie, whom the U. S. Marines discharged because of physical disabilities, hustled to the Lions' training camp at a suburban golf course right after signing.

"I can hardly wait to put on a uniform," he said.

Only Six Teams Left in Amateur Tourney

YOUNGSTOWN, O., Sept. 15—Only six teams remain in competition in the 30th annual amateur baseball Federation tournament and two of them will be dropped today in a schedule pairing four once-beaten teams.

The two teams as yet undefeated in the two-defeats-and-out schedule are the Cleveland Bartunek Clothiers and Detroit's defending Auto club nine, paired in a floodlight game tonight.

Fort Wayne, Ind.'s City Lights, who booted the Birmingham, Ala., Acipcos out of play yesterday, meet the strong Atlanta ordnance depot in one of the afternoon encounters. The other is between the Pontiac, Mich., Yellow Coaches and Waterbury, Conn.

The Bartuneks handed Pontiac its first defeat last night 9-1, on a two-hit pitching performance by Paul O'Dea, former Springfield, O., Mid-Atlantic leaguer. Detroit was idle with a bye yesterday. Fort Wayne shut out the Birmingham team, 2-0.

Waterbury eliminated the Pittsburgh Oakmonts by handing the Pennsylvanians their second defeat, 3-1, and Atlanta put the Baltimore Spring Grove nine out of the tournament.

Upper Sandusky Opens Season with Richwood

Special to The Star

UPPER SANDUSKY, Sept. 15—The opening kick-off of the 1943 football season here, Friday at 8 p. m. (slow time) will bring Richwood High school here to meet the Rams under the lights. Coach Kenneth Sampson says his squad of 38 contains some very promising material but with the exceptions of Captain Tom Snyder at right tackle and Quarterback Bobby Warner the team will be comparatively inexperienced.

Home games this year for the Rams will be Richwood, Sept. 17; Crestline, Oct. 8; Bellevue, Oct. 15; Tiffin Calvert, Oct. 22, and Willard, Nov. 5. They will go to Bucyrus, Sept. 24; Ada, Oct. 1; Marysville, Oct. 28, and Carey, Nov. 11.

TAG TEAM MATCH

Promoter Les Fishbaugh has signed Gil LaCrosse of Toledo and Ali Pasha as opponents of Jack Reeder and Wild Bill Zimovich for a tag team wrestling feature at the Armory arena Thursday night.

The scrap looms as one of the greatest matches staged in Marion this year. A fierce feud is now in progress between Gil LaCrosse, member of one of the teams, and Jack Reeder, who is on the opposing team. The two hooked up in a tag team affair several weeks ago and lost. Reeder charged that it was through LaCrosse's negligence that the two lost. To settle the disturbance Matchmaker Fishbaugh last week carded the two in a four-star event. LaCrosse won. And now Reeder hopes to revenge both the first tag team defeat and last week's setback by upsetting LaCrosse in a tag contest.

For his partner LaCrosse has picked Ali Pasha, the bearded Hindu star, while Reeder is basing his hopes on Wild Bill Zimovich, the strong Nicaraguan.

In the one-hour opening match Fishbaugh has contracted Pat Riley of Texas, a former Marion favorite, and Carl (the Count) Von Lehman of New York City.—Adv.

Bettina Wonders Why Bivins Rules as Ring Favorite

By The Associated Press

CLEVELAND, Sept. 15—Georgie Mose Bettina claims the Army has made him a better fighter and intends to prove it tonight when he goes 10 rounds or less with Jimmy Bivins in Cleveland's municipal stadium.

The unassuming military policeman is puzzled because Bivins is a 2 to 1 favorite in the betting. "Do they like betting really means anything to you?" he remarked, "I still think Bivins should rate as the favorite is 'way over my head."

Bettina knocked out a clean cut decision over the Cleveland Negro in November, 1941, and hasn't been beaten in 14 starts as a heavyweight.

Gymnasium hangers-on tried to explain the wagering odds to the corporal by pointing out that he has boxed only once since joining the Army and that the Bivins of 1941 isn't the Bivins of today.

Mello has an answer for both of those arguments.

"Dempsey and Tunney used to fight only once a year and they managed to do all right, didn't they? As a matter of fact, the Army has made a better ring-fighter out of me. That'll be proved to everybody's satisfaction tonight."

The 23-year-old Bivins spotted Bettina seven years experience in their first encounter. He owns a string of 12 victories and hasn't been beaten since Bob Pastor got the nod in an April, 1942, scrap. Jimmy later evened the score with rapid Robert.

A crowd of about 25,000 is expected to contribute around $75,000 to see the two heavies compete for a possible shot at Billy Conn. Promoters Bob Brickman and Larry Atkins have guaranteed at least $50,000 for any war relief if Secretary of War Stimson will permit Corporal Billy to meet the winner.

Three Teams Continue Undefeated in Season's Early Games; Two Bowlers Top 200 Mark.

Three teams emerged with unscathed records from the season-opening sessions of the Marion-Reser Power Co. and Home bowling leagues at the Palace Recreation and Marion Recreation Centers, respectively, Monday night.

These quintets were the Carrol-Jewelry outfit in the Home loop and the Refrigerators and Irons in the Reserve circuit. All finished with three wins and no losses.

Elsewhere, Home league rollers, and Magers of the Reserve-Power loop, toppled the only 200 games of the night with 207 and 213. Other high scores in the Home loop were: Dixon 195, T. Chapman 198, M. Pearce 195, Fetter 192, and R. Snaffstall 193. Hap Appiegett racked up the only other above-190 single game in the Electrical league with 193.

Following are the three-game series marks of bowlers in the Home and Reserve-Power leagues Monday night and the standings in the Home circuit:

Two On 50 Yard Line, Please!

By FRITZ HOWELL

COLUMBUS, O., Sept. 15—This would be a good season, says the man who knows, for you to get one of those almost fabulous 50-yard-line seats for Ohio State university's football games.

The man who knows, of course, is Henry Taylor, director of ticket sales for the Bucks. "Hen," as he's known affectionately to one and all, has been dealing out the duesels since the days of the old center rush.

Henry, ever mournful when the turnstiles aren't clicking a merry tune, said today the ticket sale outlook was "not very rosy!"

"There is a spirited sale of tickets for the Purdue game at Cleveland Oct. 16," Taylor said, "and the faculty book business is good." (The faculty gets its books at about half price.)

Lags Behind Last Year

"However," Henry continued, "the advance sale isn't anything like it was last year. Of course, we had a gold mine last season. Right now our single game ticket sale is just about 35 or 40 per cent of what it was a year ago at this time, while the season book business is about 55 per cent of normal.

"This would be a good year for some of the fans, who usually get their orders in late and consequently get poor seats, to make a dash for some of the mid-field sections. I suppose many of them are waiting to see just what kind of a team we'll have, with all those freshmen on the squad.

"Well, I've been looking over football teams for quite a while, and from what I've seen in practice this season, it looks like we've got just a little bit more than the boys will admit. Coach Paul Brown will always have an interesting team on the field, and this one will win its share of games. If you want to see 'em do it, now's the time to get your tickets."

The Buck attendance could drop off quite a bit this season, and still present a pretty healthy figure.

Wins 15, Loses 2, Ties 1

Brown has been at the helm two seasons, winning 15 games, losing two and deadlocking one. His present squad is the defending Western Conference and national champion. He has proved to be not only a winning mentor, but has pulled the people into the park.

The attendance for his two campaigns has never been equalled on an Ohio team. In 1941, as Brown bowed into the big time, the Bucks played to 488,471 fans in eight contests, breaking the previous Buckeye mark for a season by 88,788. In 1942, despite crowds of 22,555 for the Fort Knox game and only 27,259 for the Iowa Seahawk contest, the Bucks played to 461,865 in 10 contests.

That makes a total of 950,336 for 18 games, an average of 52,791 over the two-year stretch. Until Brown took over, a season's attendance of 399,683 set in 1937 under Coach Francis Schmidt was "tops," but "precision Paul" has bettered that mark each time but—once by 88,788 and once by 62,182.

And Mr. Taylor thinks Paul will do all right again this year.

Syracuse Chiefs Win Opener in Playoff

Manager Jewell Ens of the Syracuse Chiefs opened the semi-final playoffs of the international league with Newark with a bit of strategy and today sits in the driver's seat.

With every one expecting the Chiefs to toss Tomas De La Cruz, slender Cuban, against the Bears' Walt (Monk) Dubiel, Ens sent Millard Howell to the hill.

The strategy worked. The Chiefs mastered Dubiel and Howell went on to win 6-2.

In the other bracket, the pennant winning Toronto Leafs downed the Montreal Royals, 5-2.

Indians Battered Into Third Place By St. Louis Browns

By The Associated Press

ST. LOUIS, Sept. 15—Battered by the St. Louis Browns at bat and afield in the last two games, the Cleveland Indians are back in third place today, a game and a half behind the Washington Nats.

The Tribe's defeat was registered last night, 7 to 3, in the 12 innings of play, looking for a 7-1 win. The defeat was a sharp reverse to Cleveland's ace—Jim Bagby and Al Smith.

After today's set-to with the Browns, the Indians return home Friday night to open a four-game stand.

Steve Sundra put out a fourth consecutive win yesterday's twilight affair, aided by Vernon Stephens' 19th and 20th home runs. Bagby gave up five hits in six innings before being relieved by Jim Naymick, who yielded one safety in two frames.

Stephens' circuit blow has first inning smash in the second and duplicated it in the sixth.

In the afternoon, Nelson Potter scattered nine hits, and the Browns got to Smith and Vernon Kennedy for the same number.

The Indians tallied first when Ray Mack singled in the third inning, stole second and raced home on a single by Russ Peters.

St. Louis scored twice in the last of the same inning, however, on successive singles by Don Gutteridge, Mike Kreevich and George McQuinn, and an error by Catcher Buddy Rosar. The Browns made three runs in the fifth on doubles by Mark Christman and Stephens, after Smith issued bases on balls to McQuinn and Chet Laabs. The final two markers came in the sixth, in an attack that started when Roy Cullenbine misjudged Frankie Hayes' outfield fly that was good for two bases.

FAUROT KNOWS ONLY HIS TEAM WILL FIGHT

By The Associated Press

IOWA CITY, Ia., Sept. 15—Lt. Don Faurot, head football coach at the Iowa Navy pre-flight school, knows his Seahawks will be a "fighting team," but he says, there are too many uncertainties to warrant further predictions about his gridders.

Utilizing the single wing back and "T" without a man in motion formations, the Seahawks have demonstrated in intra-squad games the wide-open brand of ball they will play.

Under orders to use cadets as much as possible, Lt. Faurot said he would not include officers in any starting lineups. He will use them when the going gets rough.

Only four of the cadets have had intercollegiate experience. Bob Carlson was a reserve tackle at Northwestern, Frank Maznicki came via Boston college and the Chicago Bears, Nick Kerasiotis was named on the "Greek All-America" team while at St. Amorose college, Davenport, Ia., and Jimmy Smith was a regular at the University of Illinois.

Heading the list of officer-players are Dick Todd, former Washington Redskin ace, and Vince Banonis, ex-Detroit university star.

The schedule: Sept. 18, Illinois at Champaign; Sept. 25, Ohio State at Columbus; Oct. 2, Iowa State at Ames; Oct. 9, Iowa at Iowa City; Oct. 16, Missouri at Kansas City, Oct. 30, Fort Riley at Iowa City; Nov. 6, Marquette at Milwaukee; Nov. 13, Camp Grant at Iowa City; Nov. 20, Notre Dame at South Bend, and Nov. 27, Minnesota at Minneapolis.

Few 6-Man Teams

Six-man teams in the state of Ohio seem to be practically a thing of the past this season. Many of the larger high schools have abandoned regulation 11-man gridding for the duration and the smaller institutions, sporting half-dozen squads, of course, have dropped football to a great extent. It looks as if Burton's team is one of the few of its kind left in the state.

For that reason, LaRue athletic officials have run into unprecedented difficulty in scheduling games. Any six-man teams who still have unfilled dates on their 1943 schedules, are requested by Coach Burton to contact him as soon as possible. He feels that his boys want to see more grid action than they will under the present set up and schedule.

Only one player on the 1942 LaRue starting eleven has reported to Coach Burton for a position on this year's lineup. He is Dennison, a senior, who has been shifted from blocking back to end. Davis, a sophomore, likewise is back for 1943 football at LaRue. He is a back and saw considerable action in last year's backfield. According to Mentor Burton he is "an oustanding passer and looks good as a runner."

R. Millisor, remarks Burton, is a "hard charging back, who can be depended upon for short gains through the line and for good blocking on end runs."

Outside of these three reliables, three lettermen are returning to the LaRue team. They are Snyder, Cochran and Parish. Burton rates Snyder as a "good defensive lineman and pass receiver."

Good Blocker

Cochran is said to be a better-than-average line blocker but according to Coach Burton, Parish "looks reliable at center", Burton commented.

The war, such a bugaboo to high school coaches throughout the country, oddly enough has passed over the LaRue football team. Actually, the present squad, numbering 22 boys, is larger than last year's turn outs. None of the players expected to play on this year's team have been drafted. However, five of the six boys in last year's number one lineup who graduated last spring, are now serving with Uncle Sam.

The main trouble at present with the LaRue gridders is their lack of sufficient knowledge and skill in the fundamentals of the game, Coach Burton observed in one of the preliminary practice drills.

He said, "The team seems to be deficient in the fundamentals of [illegible] blocking and tackling at the present time. The next two weeks will be spent on [illegible] fundamentals of football, [illegible] practice time."

Coach Burton is in his second season as head mentor at the LaRue High school. He has been assistant coach at the LaRue High school for [illegible] years previous to that time and last year's team was rated among the best in the state.

Burton learned his football [illegible] at Muskingum college in New Concord, O. He is a graduate of the Ohio Wesleyan university, Delaware, O., where he received his A. B. degree in 1941.

Brewers Move Nearer Association Pennant

By The Associated Press

Milwaukee moved another step toward the American Association pennant last night, defeating Minneapolis 7-3 while second place Indianapolis was shutting out Toledo 2-0. The season's end.

Indianapolis remained in the running for the league championship by squeezing out the fourth-place Blues behind the nine-hit pitching of Jim Tobin.

Although Preacher Roe gave up five hits on the road, Columbus dropped a 2-1 decision and fell to [illegible] out of first place.

Kansas City moved into [illegible] place by a scant one point in splitting a double header with St. Paul, the Saints dropping into the cellar. The Blues won the first game 1-0 while losing the nightcap 1-5.

Family Questions Studied at Clinic

Questions considered in the "Family Clinic" forum Tuesday night at Central Christian church were: "Should all members of the family regardless of age be included in a family council to decide problems in the home?" "Are there better ways to punish a child than using physical punishment?" "What can be done for a child who has never learned to think for himself?" The questions were answered by Mrs. Clarence Hamilton, guest speaker. The topic of her address was "Our Little Children Face Life."

This afternoon Mrs. Hamilton held a special session for women on the topic, "Resources for Abundant Living." Mrs. Harold K. Mouser, president of the women's auxiliary to the Marion Academy of Medicine, acted as chairman for the discussion period.

Tonight at 8 the clinic will hold its fifth session. Mrs. Hamilton's topic will be "Problems of Adolescence." She will discuss the complex problems which the youth of today face in a world at war. Supt. Holt of the Marion schools will preside in the forum period.

FAMINE THREATENS ITALIANS IN NORTH

By The Associated Press

BERN, SWITZERLAND, Sept. 15—The specter of famine hangs over Rome and the Nazi-occupied cities of northern Italy, dispatches from the Italian frontier said today.

Nazi authorities in Rome broadcast a proclamation telling the Italian people that after the invasion of Badoglio and the rupture of the treaty of alliance between the reich and Italy, the German military have taken Italian territory under their protection."

The proclamation admitted resistance had occurred "even in Rome" to German occupation but declared that order now had been restored. It ordered all persons to deliver their firearms to German authorities by today or be shot.

German General Stahl, who signed the proclamation, declared that saboteurs would be punished severely, the dispatches added.

Youth Pleads Guilty in Hardin Co. Court

KENTON, O., Sept. 15—Merlin Poe, 18, farm youth of west of Kenton who Saturday admitted guilt on four forgery charges and one indictment of obtaining money from the First National bank of Forest under false pretenses of owning the furniture he mortgaged, will be sentenced by Judge Arthur D. Tudor later this week after completing an investigation of the youth's character and habits.

Roy DeLong, 20, pleaded not guilty to complicity in two of the check forgeries and was freed on $800 bond for trial late this month.

Three other youths pleaded guilty to check forgery indictments. Jack Dyer, 22, who said he was a second offender, was sentenced to serve not less than one year in the Ohio penitentiary. Two alleged companions, Eugene Fraley, 17, and Ralph Nichols, 18, admitted their guilt and were freed under terms of suspended imposition of sentences.

First Party at Bucyrus for Camp Millard Men

BUCYRUS, Sept. 12—Inaugurating a fall and winter program of social entertainment for service men at Camp Millard, the newly organized Bucyrus Women's Service organization sponsored the first of a series of Saturday night dances at the Elks club Saturday night.

Making their first appearance at the dance were 70 junior hostesses who have been attending a training course designed to prepare them to serve as partners of service men at similar functions.

Music for the dance was provided by Dave Wehner and his band from Mansfield who gave their services gratis as a gesture of good will to the troops stationed at Millard.

Colonel Convicted, Reduced to Captain

By The Associated Press

SELFRIDGE FIELD, Mich., Sept. 15—Col. William T. Coleman, convicted by a general court martial of violating the articles of war, faces a demotion to the grade of captain with no chance for promotion for three years.

The court martial of eight colonels and one lieutenant-colonel convicted the 39-years-old former commandant of this Army air base of five counts, acquitted him of 23 other charges and in sentencing his reduction in rank, ordered that he be placed at the bottom of the list of captains, making him ineligible for promotion for three years.

The verdict, however, is subject to review by the war department at Washington and the sentence will not take effect until final approval.

LEFT WING CHARGE HURLED AT PRESIDENT

By The Associated Press

WASHINGTON, Sept. 15—Accusing President Roosevelt of seeking support of "the left wing group," Rep. Dies (D-Tex) challenged the Chief Executive today to "take to the American people the issue of whether men who don't believe in our form of government should be allowed to stay on the government payroll."

The chairman of the house committee on un-American activities assailed as "smacking of dictatorship" the President's message to congress yesterday criticizing congressional action ordering the dismissal of three federal employes whose Americanism had been questioned by Dies.

The trio, Dr. Goodwin B. Watson and William E. Dodd Jr., of the federal communications commission, and Dr. Robert Morss Lovett, government secretary of the Virgin Islands, were ordered removed from the federal payrolls unless the President nominates them and the senate confirms them prior to Nov. 15.

The house appropriations committee held all three of them "unfit" to continue in the federal service, and after a long fight between senate and the house, congress ordered their dismissal in a rider to an appropriation bill.

MASONIC CHAPTER MEETS

Marion Chapter No. 62, Royal Arch Masons, opened its fall season with a meeting last night in the Masonic temple. Plans for the annual state session in Columbus Oct. 6 and 7 were announced. The following members are planning to attend: Stuart E. Jones, high priest of the Marion chapter, Carl E. Fisher, John K. Gruber, H. Harry Gast and Harold Hall. The Mark master and past master degrees were conferred and the most excellent master degree will be conferred Sept. 28. Plans to confer the royal arch degree Oct. 12 were announced. A special assembly of Marion Council No. 22 will be held at 7:30 p. m. tonight when the royal and select master degree will be conferred.

ITALY

combat would begin at the first light of dawn today.

With complete coordination never before attained by any Army, Navy, and Airforce, allied aircraft and warships joined in support of the Fifth Army, and the airforce threw in the full weight of its striking power which never before was concentrated on so small an area.

Hundreds upon hundreds of Flying Fortresses, medium bombers, fighter-bombers, dive-bombers and fighters attacked roads, motor transports, troops, and gun positions immediately behind the enemy's front lines and other night bombers carried on the assault after dark.

Hundreds of big shells were poured into Nazi positions, where troops concentrated for counter-attacks, by American and British cruisers and destroyers steaming close inshore despite several bit-run bombing attacks and strong counter-fire from German artillery.

Despite all this, Clark's army still was confronted with a terrific fight in its efforts to expand a small bridgehead and gain fresh footholds on the high ground beyond, from which the Nazis can now command the entire beach area.

"The enemy is attacking incessantly because he realizes this is his best opportunity," the allied officer declared. At the same time, however, reports from the front told of great confidence among the allied forces who, he explained, "have proven that they can beat the Germans and know they can do it again."

Nazi Guns Well Located

From heights commanding the beaches Nazi artillery was reported pouring down a murderous fire from guns ranging up to 149 millimeters on the six-mile-wide strip held by the Americans.

Under cover of this fire Marshal Albert Kesselring's armored divisions apparently were trying to consolidate a wedge they had driven into the area between the Sele and Calore rivers and to extend their line to the sea.

Allied fighter squadrons were handicapped by the fact that their nearest land base was 150 miles away and they were unable to ease materially the pressure on the ground troops.

(The German radio said flatly that Nazi tank divisions had smashed through the allied lines on the plains of Salerno and were "engaged in breaking enemy resistance on the coasts of the sea." Strong allied detachments, the Nazis said, have been cut off from their beachheads by the attacks.

(Other German broadcasts described the fighting as bloody as that at Gallopoli in the first World war when the British attempted to force the Dardanelles.

(They added that the allies were abandoning the bridgehead "in complete disorder" and said that American troops were in flight after suffering 8,000 to 10,000 casualties. There was no confirmation of these claims.

Despite the Eighth Army's rapid progress, military men said several days must elapse before Gen. Sir Bernard L. Montgomery's force could possibly reach the Salerno bridgehead and become a factor in the fighting there. Particularly since it must bring up its own supplies.

In addition, the German high command undoubtedly realizes the danger of its own position, if the Eighth Army reaches that area and throws its veteran warriors into support of the Fifth Army. Thus it appeared likely the British would encounter even more extensive demolitions to retard it in the 80 miles of travel through rough country still ahead of it.

Nazi Division Retreats

A substantial force including large elements of at least one German division is known to be retreating swiftly ahead of the Eighth Army, but there has been no indication yet that it might turn and try to bar Montgomery's way.

Instead, it is apparently being rushed north to join the onslaughts in the Salerno area.

In the Taranto area, Italian troops were said to be continuing to assist Allied forces in extending their hold on and around the heel of Italy.

(The German communique said one Allied group was encircled and another destroyed in Nazi attacks yesterday near Salerno and Eboli to the southeast. It reported a hit on an Allied cruiser by a German motor torpedo boat, and later Berlin broadcasts said 14 Allied transports totaling 49,000 tons have been sunk in 36 hours by Nazi planes. Eight fully-laden craft were sunk or set afire, it added.)

Mutual To Repeat Series of Network Programs

By The Associated Press

NEW YORK, Sept. 15—A daytime repeat through recordings of night-time sponsored programs "presented over any network," has been announced by Mutual. The recordings will be listed generally as "Daytime Playhouse," between 3 and 4 p. m. five times a week and start in October.

Sale of New York station WMCA by Edward J. Noble, recent purchaser of the BLU network for $8,000,000, to comply with an FCC regulation against a common ownership of transmitters in the same locality, represented quite an enhancement in value for the broadcast plant. Noble bought the station late in 1940 for $850,000, adding capital of approximately $200,000. The new owner, Nathan Straus, New York businessman, paid $1,250,000, the announcement said.

GRAINS ADVANCE ON BUYING DEMANDS

By The Associated Press

CHICAGO, Sept. 15—Grain futures showed renewed strength today, with pressure lacking and prices climbing easily on buying demand.

Rye and oats were strongest, with gains reaching more than a cent at times, and buying by local traders disclosed a scarcity of offerings. The rye upturn rallied wheat, which also showed some firmness in response to another higher Winnipeg market.

Pitfalls of Love

By ADELE GARRISON

THERE was poignant anguish in Ronald's voice as he flung his question at my father. With a sympathetic quickening of my pulses, I knew that the always latent fear of the connection his idolized only sister, Carolyn, might have with the mysterious disappearance of her dear friend Marion Morton, to whom he was betrothed, had suddenly sharpened.

Dicky, seated next to Ronald, put out his hand and gave Ronald's shoulder a sympathetic grip.

Ronald Relaxes

"Steady, old chap!" he said in what was almost a whisper, and I saw Ronald relax a bit. But he was still poised as if for a sudden leap from his chair, as he looked with fixed attention, at my father who began to speak, slowly and distinctly.

"That is what we do not know, Ronald," he said. "That is what we must find out. Marion may be shielding Carolyn, or she may think by her going willingly with the gangsters she may be averting danger to her mother or her stepfather or someone else dear to her. Nobody knows what arguments they may have used. But one thing you may depend on, dear boy. In the face of these new developments, we shall neglect no slightest angle of this problem."

Ronald looked as if he had other questions ready on his lips, but my father's manner forbade interruption.

Spencer Continues

"And now," he said, "I will go on to the last of the revelations Mary just has made to us."

He did not look at Ronald, but I saw the boy's cheeks flush at the reproach with which my father's voice was infused.

"Of course, we realize what she means by understanding our signals," he said. "She must have seen those personals we put in all the papers, telling her that we had received and understood her code letter to her mother. Also, of course, this 'wigwag' message back to her that she wants us to send can only be another 'personal.' That's the best we can do now."

He swept us all with a glance, and I knew that he already had mapped out his campaign, and was ready to hand each of us our assignments.

"I am going back to your suite, Margaret," he said, "and summon three of my most trusted men. I shall tell them nothing over the telephone, of course, except that I need them. But shortly after they reach here, we shall have laid the foundations for twenty-four hours a day espionage of that restaurant where Marion encountered the waiter, Crump.

Will Rent Room

"I shall rent an apartment or a room with windows looking directly at the restaurant," he continued. "If they risk another visit there with her—they evidently are trying to give her a little recreation, but I doubt if they will repeat the visit for several days—we shall have force enough on hand to snatch her from the gangsters and put her safely into that room."

"You don't mean to nab the gangsters at the same time!" Dicky put in, evidently so astonished that he could not keep silent.

"That depends," my father replied, frowning slightly at the interruption, but I knew that Dicky was not in the least remorseful. "If my case is complete, I shall have them taken; if not, I shall have them trailed in their headlong flight away from the scene. They probably will put up a desperate struggle to keep Marion, and when they realize they cannot, they will flee precipitately, and that is where my trackers will prove their worth."

Only One Angle

"You see," he went on, with sternness in his voice, "Marion dear as she is to us, is only one angle of this problem. We must get to the center of the web where crouches the spider who is directing the search for Jack Bickett, for Georges, and who is responsible for the attempts on the lives of Olga and Olina. These are all also minor objectives in a conspiracy to strike at the vital defenses of the country."

His voice was ringing with fervor as he finished. Then it dropped to ordinary tones again.

"That is why, Richard, I may not be able to have Marion's captors seized when we rescue her, but must have them trailed instead. And, of course, we must not count prematurely upon her rescue. It may be several days before we discover her whereabouts."

I saw Ronald's eyes widen in horror, and knew that he was thinking, as I was, of that part of the code message which had spoken of her fear that the "pirates" were planning to make her "walk the plank." But when he closed them as if he could no longer keep them open, I knew that he had recognized, as I did, the futility of protest. My father would do everything in his power to rescue Marion, but he could not be hurried.

And then, unexpectedly, he addressed the desperate boy.

"Ronald," he said, "will you please write a letter to Carolyn immediately?"

The Stars Say—

By GENEVIEVE KEMBLE

For Thursday, Sept. 16

FAIR AND steady progress should be made on this day, with things on which firm foundations have already been laid. If they are in connection with public ideas or spectacular strokes of genius. The test of practical and constructive skill or mechanical ability may be at issue and determine the measure of public approbation. This might take the form of a gift or pension. Be conservative at home.

Those whose birthday it is may look for a year in which there may be some solid, enduring and worthwhile token of public or community appreciation. This is probably for skill, originality, ingenuity or creative work, developed by industry, and perseverance. In domestic, social or romantic associations sustain harmony and pleasant relations.

A child born on this day may be steady, persistent, practical, and possess brilliant ideas or mechanical skills insuring it worthwhile success and tokens of appreciation. It may enjoy gifts or inheritance.

Energy Vitamin

THERE IS a fascinating theory about modern civilization that I have already expressed in this column, but since it is apropos to the subject I am to discuss today it will bear brief repetition.

The theory is that the reason so little is accomplished in tropical countries is that the heat and perspiration make for a high excretion of vitamin B from the body, so people in those climates are in a continual state of vitamin B deficiency. Since vitamin B may be called the energy, or pep, vitamin, it is obvious that when there is a deficiency of vitamin B there is a deficiency of energy and work.

The two places in the world where the climate makes for the greatest utilization of vitamin B is the northern part of the United States and the northern part of Europe. Here man shows the greatest inclination to energy and in the United States this is combined with the greatest productivity of the land and the greatest natural resources in the world. So it looks as if the future belongs to that section of the world.

Confirming the idea that vitamin B is the work, or energy, vitamin are some experiments just published in which the actual work done by a group of human subjects was carefully measured on three diets which contained respectively an average amount, a deficient amount and a large amount of vitamin B.

The subjects of the experiment were healthy young males—medical students, which guaranteed an intelligent cooperation in the tests. The work done was measured on an electro-dynamic brake bicycle which could be adjusted so as to measure the exact amount of work done. The subjects exercised on this three times a week, which was the only exercise they took.

They were on Diet 1, which was a normal diet, adequate in vitamin B for about a year. During this time their work record gradually reached a degree of efficiency so that the week-to-week amount could be represented by a straight line. This was considered an average normal for each subject.

Then they were put on Diet 2, which was notably deficient in vitamin B complex. On this diet there was an immediate decrease in the work output. Then yeast was added to the diet to bring up the vitamin B content and the work output increased in all subjects within 48 hours. Within four days one subject did more work than he ever did on the normal diet.

A check was made giving the deficient diet, and increasing the amount of carbohydrate—starch and sugar—which oxidize rapidly in the body and therefore presumably furnish energy, but this did not increase the work output so long as the vitamin B content of the diet was low.

The results seem to be well proved and confirm the theory about the influence of climate on vitamin B retention and population energy.

YOU'RE A STRANGE PUZZLE!
SHH! DON'T MAKE A SOUND. KROM IS OUT THERE
THERE'S YOUR MASTER, KROM. WHY DON'T YOU TURN ME OVER TO HIM?
YOU LITTLE DEVIL I'M GOING TO KEEP YOU QUIET- SOME-HOW

WITH A FISHING-NET FASTENED TO ITS UNDER-CARRIAGE, A SMALL HELICOPTER STREAKS SKYWARD—
LOOK- TRIXIE- WE'VE CAUGHT UP WITH OUR RADIO-CONTROLLED VULTURE AGAIN!-
IT'S SWOOPING DOWNWARD TOWARD THAT MASS OF CLOUDS-
THE FOG BANKS! LURKING SOMEWHERE BELOW IS THAT ENEMY AIRCRAFT-CARRIER—HOLD TIGHT, WHILE I TRY TO SNARE THAT BIRD IN TIME! IT'S NOW OR NEVER!

CASPER, DID YOU HEAR ABOUT THE "GOOD FELLOWS" CLUB BEING RAIDED BY THE POLICE, BECAUSE OF GAMBLING?
YES, BUT IT DOESN'T CONCERN ME. I WAS GOING TO RESIGN, ANYWAY.
WELL, I'M NOT GOING TO WORRY ABOUT IT, EITHER. NOBODY KNOWS THAT I WAS ELECTED PRESIDENT OF THE CLUB THE DAY BEFORE THE RAID!

LOOK! THERE'S COLONEL HOOFER!
HE'S PRESIDENT OF THE "GOOD FELLOWS" CLUB!
THAT'S THE DEN THE POLICE RAIDED, BECAUSE OF GAMBLING.
IT'S ABOUT TIME THAT PLACE WAS CLOSED UP!
HOOFER'S LUCKY IF HE DOESN'T GO TO JAIL!

IT WASN'T RIGHT FOR YOU TO ACT SO YOU'D BE BUSTED EVERY TIME YOU WERE PROMOTED
RIGHT? SURE IT WAS RIGHT
I DON'T LIKE BEING ORDERED AROUND. IF I WAS A NON-COM AND ORDERED OTHERS AROUND IT WOULD BE AGAINST THE GOLDEN RULE
9-15
I'M GLAD YOU BELIEVE IN THE GOLDEN RULE, YOUNG MAN. I'M GOING TO MAKE YOU MY ORDERLY-
-AND YOU BE THE KIND OF ORDERLY YOU'D WANT ME TO BE, IF OUR POSITIONS WERE REVERSED
ER, YES, SIR

HONEST, JENNY, I FEEL TERRIBLE BAD; BECAUSE THAT POOR LITTLE MONKEY IS SICK
I KNOW, IT LOOKS SO WEAK AND MISERABLE I FEEL LIKE CRYING EVERY TIME I LOOK AT IT-
MONKEYS ARE ALWAYS SO HAPPY AND FUNNY-LOOKIN' WHEN THEY'RE NOT SICK. WHEN THEY GET SICK THEY LOOK SO TINY AND HELPLESS-
I GOTTA BAG OF PEANUTS, BUT THE MAN SEZ A SICK MONKEY WON'T EAT ANYTHIN', NOT EVEN PEANUTS, SO NOBODY CAN DO ANYTHIN', 'CEPT FEEL TERRIBLE SORRY-

WOW! AM I GLAD TO GET BACK FROM THAT HUNTIN' TRIP! EVEN HOME WILL LOOK GOOD AFTER THAT EXPERIENCE!
AH-YOU ARE BACK-DO YOU HAVE A GOOD TIME? I'LL BE RIGHT DOWN- YOU CAN TELL ME ALL ABOUT IT!
I LEFT YOUR SISTER'S FIANCE-HE WANTED TO STAY OVER ANOTHER DAY AND HUNT WITH TH' GAME WARDEN--I GOT TIRED OF HUNTIN'!!
I SUPPOSE HE IS HUNTING FOR BEARS!
NO-HE'S HUNTIN' FOR HIS TEETH- HE LOST THEM THE SECOND DAY WE ARRIVED-
